

Joint Venture

1. Introduction

a. Meaning

- It is a business arrangement in which two or more parties agree to pool their resources to gain a strategic edge in the market.
- Entities or persons often enter into a joint venture to pursue specific projects.
- It is a very short duration business, generally confined to single transactions like underwriting of shares, construction of building, etc.

b. Features of Joint venture

- Two or more persons are needed
- It is an agreement to execute a particular project.
- Joint venture business may not have a specific name

c. Difference between Joint venture and Partnership

Partnership	Joint venture
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Always carried on with firm's name• Persons who run the business on partnership are called as partners• Generally, constructed for a long period.• Governed by The Partnership Act, 1932	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• No such firm name is required• Persons who agreed to take the project as joint venture are called as co-ventures• It is for short duration.• No enactment of such kind for the joint ventures.

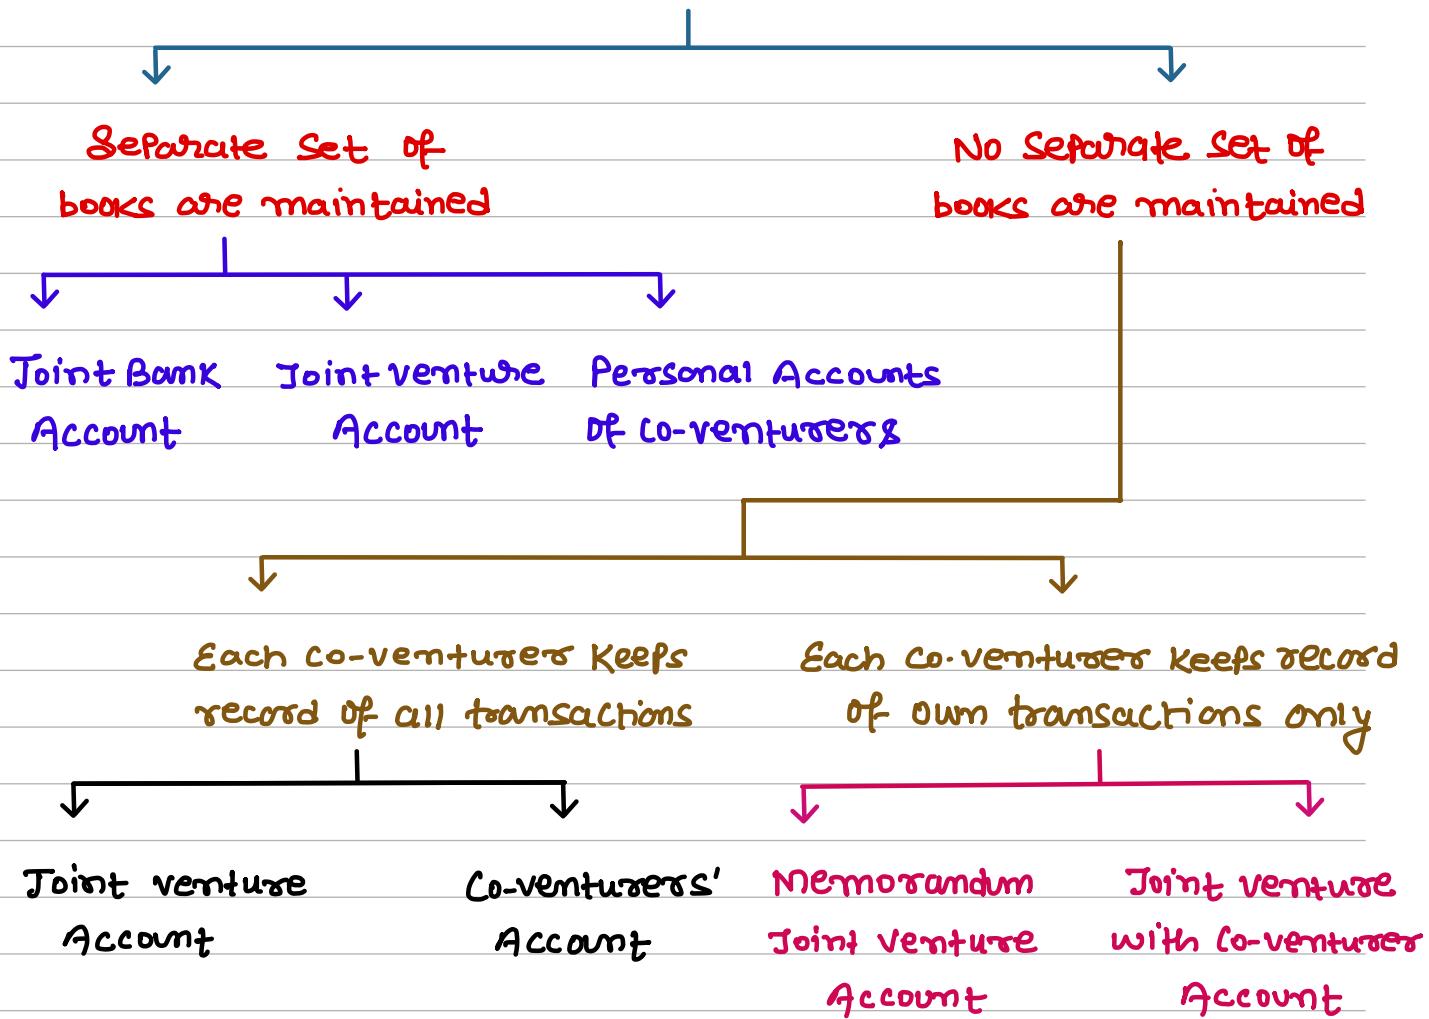

2. Accounting of Joint venture

Co-venturers can maintain the accounts for Joint venture in the manner that suits them in a particular situation.

Generally there are two ways to keep records of Joint venture -

- i) When separate set of books are maintained
 - Each co-venturer keeps record of all transactions
 - Each co-venturer keeps records of its own transactions only [Memorandum Joint venture]

Maintenance of Joint Venture Accounts

B. Separate Set of Books are Maintained

. Following three accounts are maintained -

i) Joint venture Account

- In this account all expenses (Revenue, Capital, Paid by co-venturers or out of joint Bank) and revenue (to outsiders or taken by co-venturers) are recorded.
- Net results of this account is profit or loss.

ii) Joint Bank Account

To record cash/Bank transactions a Joint Bank is maintained.
This is basically the cash books of the business.

iii) Co-venturers Account

- It is personal A/C of co-venturer.
