EXECUTIVE PROGRAMME EXAMINATION

DECEMBER 2023

JURISPRUDENCE, INTERPRETATION & GENERAL LAWS*Time allowed : 3 hoursMaximum marks : 100Total number of questions : 6NOTE : *Answer ALL Questions.Question 1

The Principal of a convent school, Agartala, Sister Mary Fernandez, filed a case against two persons named, Ali Kehtan and John Augustine alleging that they had made defamatory remarks in the complaint which they had submitted to the Deputy Commissioner, Agartala. The accused stated in the complaint “that the building of the aforesaid school is quite unsafe and it may bring about any disaster upon the students of this school at any time; that it as a money minting institution; that the indiscipline among the students is to an unlimited extent and this has created a great problem for the nearby residents. That it appears that this school has become a meeting place for the both sexes and the principal, Sister Mary Fernandez is turning a deaf ear towards the character of the students; that if these are not checked in time, they may become a great problem for the city”.

In an enquiry before the Sub Divisional Magistrate (SDM), the allegations of the accused were found to be false and their complaint was dismissed.

Consequently, Sister Mary Fernandez approaches police station to file criminal defamation case against the accused persons. Police registers a case of defamation, a bailable offence against Ali Kehtan and John Augustine, who later files an application in Court asking for anticipatory bail.

Sister Mary Fernandez also files civil suits seeking compensation for defamation. In the reference of above facts answer the following questions :

- (a) What is criminal defamation in Indian law ?
(4 marks)
- (b) Is the application for ‘anticipatory bail’ by accused Ali Kehtan and John Augustine maintainable ? Explain.
(4 marks)
- (c) Whether the complaint filed by the Ali Kehtan and John Augustine against Sister Mary Fernandez leads to Libel defamation or Slander defamation ? Explain.

Answer 1(a)

According to Section 499 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 whoever, by words either spoken or intended to be read, or by signs or by visible representations, makes or publishes any imputation concerning any person intending to harm, or knowing or having reason to believe that such imputation will harm, the reputation of such person, is said, except in the cases hereinafter excepted, to defame that person.

Explanation 1: It may amount to defamation to impute anything to a deceased person, if the imputation would harm the reputation of that person if living, and is intended to be hurtful to the feelings of his family or other near relatives.

Explanation 2.— It may amount to defamation to make an imputation concerning a company or an association or collection of persons as such.

Explanation 3.— An imputation in the form of an alternative or expressed ironically, may amount to defamation.

Explanation 4.— No imputation is said to harm a person's reputation, unless that imputation directly or indirectly, in the estimation of others, lowers the moral or intellectual character of that person, or lowers the character of that person in respect of his caste or of his calling, or lowers the credit of that person, or causes it to be believed that the body of that person is in a loathsome state, or in a state generally considered as disgraceful.

Answer 1(b)

Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973(Cr. P.C.) provides the provisions relating to 'Anticipatory Bail'. According to section 438 of Cr. P.C. when any person has reason to believe that he may be arrested on an accusation of having committed a non-bailable offence, he may apply to the High Court or the Court of Session for a direction under this section; and that Court may, if it thinks fit, direct that in the event of such arrest, he shall be released on bail.

Defamation being a bailable offence and anticipatory bail under Cr.P.C. can be given only to a person who apprehends arrest for a non-bailable offence. Hence in the given situation application of Ali Kehtan and John Augustine is non-maintainable.

Answer 1(c)

In libel, the defamatory statement is a representation made in some permanent and visible form, such as written words, caricatures, cinema films, effigy, statue, recorded words, printing or pictures.

In slander, it is made with spoken words or in some other transitory form, whether visible or audible, statement of temporary nature such as gestures, spoken words or inarticulate but significant sounds.

In the given situation, the complaint made can lead to be Libel defamation of Sister Mary Fernandez.

Alternate Answer 1(c)

Eight Exception provided under section 499 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 provides that it is not defamation to prefer in good faith an accusation against any person to any of those who have lawful authority over that person with respect to the subject-matter of accusation.

Illustration to the eight exception provided under section 499 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, provides that if A in good faith accuses Z before a Magistrate; if A in good faith complains of the conduct of Z, a servant, to Z's master; if A in good faith complains of the conduct of Z, a child, to Z's father-A is within this exception.

In the given situation, the complaint made may not lead to defamation.

Answer 1(d)

Section 19 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 provides the provisions relating to Suits for compensation for wrongs to person or movables. It states:

Where a suit is for compensation for wrong done to the person or to movable property, if the wrong was done within the local limits of the jurisdiction of one Court and the defendant resides, or carries on business, or personally works for gain, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of another Court, the suit may be instituted at the option of the plaintiff in either of the said Courts.

Answer 1(e)

'Publication of defamatory words' means the making known of the defamatory matter after it has been written to some person other than the person of whom it is written. The ambit of 'publish' is very wide. The publication of defamatory matter means that it is communicated to some person other than the person about whom it is addressed. In essence, publication is the communication of the statement to any third party i.e. not the claimant or the defendant.

Answer 1(f)

The time periods of limitation for compensation in defamation are as under:

For compensation for libel: One year from when the libel is published.

For compensation for slander: One year when the words are spoken, or, if the words are not actionable in themselves, when the special damage complained of results.

Question 2

- (a) The modern Indian law as administered in courts is derived from various sources and these sources fall under two heads i.e. Primary Sources and Secondary Sources. Judicial precedents are considered as primary source of Indian laws. What do you mean by Judicial Precedents ?

Read the following statements. Determine and explain what kind of precedent it is :

- (i) 'Vishaka guidelines' were stipulated by the Supreme Court of India, in Vishaka and others v. State of Rajasthan case in 1997, regarding prevention of sexual harassment at workplace. They acted as precedent for many cases during 1997-2013 until Protection of Women from Sexual Harassment Act, 2013 was enacted.
- (ii) The decision of one High Court may not be binding on other High Court. But the decisions can give a principle which may be helpful for the other High Court. The other High Court may or may not follow the principle of the decision.

Answer 2(a)

Judicial Precedent means the guidance or authority of past decisions of the courts for future cases. Only such decisions which lay down some new rule or principle are called judicial precedents.

- (i) In the given situation, it is 'Original precedent' because 'Vishaka guidelines' created and applied a new rule of law regarding prevention of sexual harassment at workplace. It was law for future because its guidelines were applied in future similar cases.
- (ii) In the given situation, it is Persuasive Precedent. A persuasive precedent is one which the judges are not obliged to follow but which they will take into consideration and to which they will attach great weight as it seems to them to deserve. For example, in certain circumstances the decision of one High Court may not binding on other High Court but the decisions can give a principle which may be helpful for the other High Court. So these types of decisions will have persuasive value.

Answer 2(b)

Instruments of gift of immovable Property falls under Documents which are compulsorily registerable under Registration Act, 1908. In case where the donor dies before registration, the document may be presented for registration after his death and if registered it will have same effect as registration in his life time. On registration, the gift deed operates from the date of execution.

It was held by Privy council in Kalyana Sundram v. Karuppa AIR 1927 PC 42 that while registration is a necessary solemnity for the enforcement of a gift of immovable property, it does not suspend the gift until registration actually takes place, when the instrument of gift has been handed over by the donor to the donee and accepted by him, the former has done everything in his power to complete the donation and to make it effective. And if it is presented by the person having necessary interest with the within the prescribed period, the Registrar must register it. Neither death nor the express revocation by the donor, is a ground for refusing the registration, provided other conditions are complied with. However, Movable properties are not required to be compulsorily registered under the Registration Act, 1908.

In the given situation, the gift deed of three movable gifts to Gajendra are fully enforceable because its registration is optional.

However, gift of immovable property is compulsorily registrable under the Registration Act, 1908. Hence Gajendra needs to apply for registration of gift deed of immovable property and if it is registered by the Registrar than it shall be considered operative from the date of execution.

Answer 2(c)

Section 6 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (TPA) contains some exceptions to the general rule that property of any kind may be transferred. According to section 6(a) of TPA, the chance of an heir-apparent succeeding to an estate, the chance of a relation obtaining a legacy on the death of a kinsman, or any other mere possibility of a like nature, cannot be transferred.

Thus, A cannot sell property of B as it is mere chance of an heir apparent succeeding to an estate.

Answer 2(d)

In the matter of Dayawati vs. Yogesh Kumar Gosain (17.10.2017-Del H.C): 2017 SCC Online Del 11032, the question before Delhi High Court was whether an offence under section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act can be referred for amicable settlement through mediation. Court stated that “even though an express statutory provision enabling the criminal court to refer the complainant and accused persons to alternate dispute redressal mechanisms (ADR) has not been specifically provided by the legislature, however, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Cr.P.C.) does permit and recognize settlement without stipulating or restricting the process by which it may be reached. There is thus no bar to utilizing the ADR including arbitration, mediation, conciliation (recognized under Section 89 of CPC) for the purposes of settling disputes which are the subject matter of offence covered under Section 320 of Cr.P.C.”

Question 3

In view of the above case, it can be said that the above matter can be referred for amicable settlement through mediation.

- (a) A sells two tons of oil to B, and sends one ton of oil by road and remaining one ton of oil by ship. Mr. B receives delivery of the one ton of oil sent by road on August 11, 2022, but before he receives the delivery sent by ship, he becomes insolvent in September, 2022. A, still being unpaid, stops the goods in transit. The official Receiver in B’s insolvency claims the goods.

Answer 3(a)

- (i) The right of stoppage in transit is a right of stopping the goods while they are in transit, resuming possession of them and retaining possession until payment of the price. The right can be exercised by the unpaid seller:

- (1) When the buyer becomes insolvent: The buyer is insolvent if he has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business, or cannot pay his debts as they become due. It is not necessary that he has actually been declared insolvent by the court.
- (2) The goods are in transit: The goods are in transit from the time they are delivered to a carrier or other bailee like a wharfinger or warehouse keeper for the purpose of transmission to the buyer and until the buyer takes delivery of them.

The right to stop in transit may be exercised by the unpaid seller either by taking actual possession of the goods or by giving notice of the seller's claim to the carrier or other person having control of the goods.

In view of the above it can be said that A can stop the goods in transit as B becomes insolvent, hence, Official Receiver will not succeed.

- (iii) According to section 54(2) of Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where the goods are of a perishable nature, or where the unpaid seller who has exercised his right of lien or stoppage in transit gives notice to the buyer of his intention to re-sell, the unpaid seller may, if the buyer does not within a reasonable time pay or tender the price, re-sell the goods within a reasonable time and recover from the original buyer damages for any loss occasioned by his breach of contract, but the buyer shall not be entitled to any profit which may occur on the re-sale. If such notice is not given, the unpaid seller shall not be entitled to recover such damages and the buyer shall be entitled to the profit, if any, on the re-sale.

Further, according to section 54(4) of Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where the seller expressly reserves a right of re-sale in case the buyer should make default, and, on the buyer making default, re-sells the goods, the original contract of sale is thereby rescinded, but without prejudice to any claim which the seller may have for damages.

In view of the above, A can resell the undelivered one ton of oil in accordance with above provisions.

Answer 3(b)

The definition of Fraud has been provided under section 17 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872. 'Fraud' is an untrue statement made knowingly with the intent to deceive. The party defrauded can avoid the contract and also claim damages. The chief ingredients of fraud are: a false representation or assertion, of fact (and not mere opinion), made with the intention that it should be acted upon, the representation must have actually induced the other party to enter into the contract and so deceived him, the party deceived must thereby be indemnified, for there is no fraud without damages, and the statement must have been made either with the knowledge that it was false or without belief in its truth or recklessly without caring whether it was true or false. It is immaterial whether the representation takes effect by false statement or with concealment.

Therefore, Tarun can recover advance payment paid from Brju because it is voidable contract on account of 'fraud' committed by Brju. Thus, Tarun can rescind/ cancel/ avoid the contract and can sue to recover the advance paid to Brju. Also Tarun has right to claim compensation for any damage which he has sustained through non-fulfilment of the contract.

Alternate answer to above paragraph

A voidable contract is initially considered legal and enforceable but can be rejected by one party if the contract is discovered to have defects. If a party with the power to reject the contract chooses not to reject the contract despite the defect, the contract remains valid and enforceable.

Now, in the given situation Brju defrauded Tarun to enter into contract. But later on Tarun found that contract was entered into by fraud. Tarun could have avoided the contract at that time and can recover advance paid.

But Brju convinced Tarun that he shall obtain the license within reasonable time, this means Tarun does not rejected the contract and agreed to continue an illegal agreement, as buying & selling of explosive chemical without licence has been prohibited by Government.

In view of the above, Tarun cannot recover advance paid if Brju failed to obtain the license as illegal agreement is not enforceable at law.

Answer 3(c)

General principles of vicarious liability is based on two maxims as follows:

- i. 'Qui facit per alium facit per se', which means, "One who does an act through another is deemed in law to do it himself".
- ii. 'Respondeat superior' which means, "Let the principal be liable" / "let the superior be responsible" for their subordinate.

Vicarious liability is a form of strict, secondary liability. Such liability arises in relationships such as of master and servant, where master shall be liable for the act of the servant done in course of employment. An act is said to be in course of employment if:

- i. The master has directly authorized the act to the servant;
- ii. The act done is authorized act done wrongly.

The wrong doing of an authorized act will make the master liable.

The facts in the instant case are, however, very clear that the incident in question took place when the cash box was being brought into the bank premises and the deceased was also entering the bank premises. If the security guard committed an error in perceiving the act of the deceased as a threat to the cash box as an impediment of protection of the property of the bank from a possible danger from any third party, the act of the security guard causing death of deceased was in the course of the employment of the security guard and, therefore, it is not possible to accept the defence pleaded by the bank that it is not vicariously liable.

Answer 4(a)

Section 6 of the Limitation Act, 1963 is an enabling Section to enable persons under disability to exercise their legal rights within a certain time. Section 7 supplements Section 6 and Section 8 controls these Sections, which serves as an exception to Section 6 and 7. Hence, under Limitation Act minority or disability falls within Special exceptions which imposes limitation on concessions under Section 6 and 7 to the person under disability includes minority up to maximum of the 3 years as the period of limitation for any suit or application after cessation of minority or disability.

This exception applies to all suits except suits to enforce rights of pre-emption. Further the period of three years has been counted, not from the date of attainment of majority by the person under disability, but from the date of cessation of minority/ disability.

Thus, Akash can file suit on cessation of minority.

Answer 4(b)

According to section 79(1) of the Information Technology Act, 2000 an intermediary shall not be liable for any third-party information, data, or communication link made available or hosted by him. According to section 79(2)(c), the provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply if the intermediary observes due diligence while discharging his duties under this Act and also observes such other guidelines as the Central Government may prescribe in this behalf.

In the case of Google India Private Limited vs. Visakha Industries and Ors. (10.12.2019 - SC) the Supreme Court decided that Section 79 of Information Technology Act, 2000(the Act) as originally enacted, did not deal with the effect of other laws.

The Supreme Court inter alia decided that the finding by the High Court that in the case on hand, in spite of the complainant issuing notice, bringing it to the notice of the Appellant about the dissemination of defamatory matter on the part of the first Accused through the medium of Appellant, Appellant did not move its little finger to block the said material to stop dissemination and, therefore, cannot claim exemption Under Section 79 of the Act, as it originally stood, is afflicted with two flaws. In the first place, the High Court itself has found that Section 79, as it originally was enacted, had nothing to do with offences with laws other than the Act. We have also found that Section 79, as originally enacted, did not deal with the effect of other laws. In short, since defamation is an offence Under Section 499 of the Indian Penal Code, Section 79, as it stood before substitution, had nothing to do with freeing of the Appellant from liability under the said provision.

In view of the above discussion, it can be said that Section 79 of Information Technology Act, 2000 as originally enacted does not deal with effect of other laws.

Answer 4(c)

In the case of Satender Kumar Antil vs. Central Bureau of Investigation and Ors. (11.07.2022 - SC), taking note of the continuous supply of cases seeking bail after filing of the final report on a wrong interpretation of Section 170 of the Code of Criminal Procedure ("the Code"), an endeavour was made by Supreme Court to categorize the types of offenses to be used as guidelines for the future.

The Supreme Court inter alia said that "The principle that bail is the Rule and jail is the exception has been well recognised through the repetitive pronouncements of this Court. This again is on the touchstone of Article 21 of the Constitution of India."

Further, in this case, the Supreme Court issued certain directions, however they may be subject to State Amendments. These directions are meant for the investigating agencies and also for the courts. The directions are as under:

- a. The Government of India may consider the introduction of a separate enactment in the nature of a Bail Act so as to streamline the grant of bails.
- b. The investigating agencies and their officers are duty-bound to comply with the mandate of Section 41 and 41A of the Code and the directions issued by this Court in Arnesh Kumar (supra). Any dereliction on their part has to be brought to the notice of the higher authorities by the court followed by appropriate action.

- c. The courts will have to satisfy themselves on the compliance of Section 41 and 41A of the Code. Any non-compliance would entitle the Accused for grant of bail.
- d. All the State Governments and the Union Territories are directed to facilitate standing orders for the procedure to be followed Under Section 41 and 41A of the Code while taking note of the order of the High Court of Delhi dated 07.02.2018 in Writ Petition (C) No. 7608 of 2018 and the standing order issued by the Delhi Police i.e. Standing Order No. 109 of 2020, to comply with the mandate of Section 41A of the Code.
- e. There need not be any insistence of a bail application while considering the application Under Section 88, 170, 204 and 209 of the Code.
- f. There needs to be a strict compliance of the mandate laid down in the judgment of this Court in Siddharth (supra).
- g. The State and Central Governments will have to comply with the directions issued by this Court from time to time with respect to constitution of special courts. The High Court in consultation with the State Governments will have to undertake an exercise on the need for the special courts. The vacancies in the position of Presiding Officers of the special courts will have to be filled up expeditiously.
- h. The High Courts are directed to undertake the exercise of finding out the undertrial prisoners who are not able to comply with the bail conditions. After doing so, appropriate action will have to be taken in light of Section 440 of the Code, facilitating the release.
- i. While insisting upon sureties the mandate of Section 440 of the Code has to be kept in mind.
- j. An exercise will have to be done in a similar manner to comply with the mandate of Section 436A of the Code both at the district judiciary level and the High Court as earlier directed by this Court in Bhim Singh (supra), followed by appropriate orders.
- k. Bail applications ought to be disposed of within a period of two weeks except if the provisions mandate otherwise, with the exception being an intervening application. Applications for anticipatory bail are expected to be disposed of within a period of six weeks with the exception of any intervening application.
- l. All State Governments, Union Territories and High Courts are directed to file affidavits/status reports within a period of four months.

In view of the above mentioned, it can be said that Right to Bail is on the touchstone of Article 21 of Indian Constitution.

Answer 4A(i)

Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 provides the provisions relating to grounds for setting aside an Arbitral Award. Section 34(2) states:

- (a) An arbitral award may be set aside by the Court only if—
 - i. a party was under some incapacity, or
 - ii. the arbitration agreement is not valid under the law to which the parties have subjected it or, failing any indication thereon, under the law for the time being in force; or

- iii. the party making the application was not given proper notice of the appointment of an arbitrator or of the arbitral proceedings or was otherwise unable to present his case; or
 - iv. the arbitral award deals with a dispute not contemplated by or not falling within the terms of the submission to arbitration, or it contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the submission to arbitration: Provided that, if the decisions on matters submitted to arbitration can be separated from those not so submitted, only that part of the arbitral award which contains decisions on matters not submitted to arbitration may be set aside; or
 - v. the composition of the arbitral tribunal or the arbitral procedure was not in accordance with the agreement of the parties, unless such agreement was in conflict with a provision of this Part from which the parties cannot derogate, or, failing such agreement, was not in accordance with this Part; or
- (b) the Court finds that,
- i. the subject-matter of the dispute is not capable of settlement by arbitration under the law for the time being in force, or
 - ii. the arbitral award is in conflict with the public policy of India.

Explanation 1

For the avoidance of any doubt, it is clarified that an award is in conflict with the public policy of India, only if,

- (i) the making of the award was induced or affected by fraud or corruption or was in violation of section 75 or section 81 ; or
- (ii) it is in contravention with the fundamental policy of Indian law; or
- (iii) it is in conflict with the most basic notions of morality or justice.

Explanation 2

For the avoidance of doubt, the test as to whether there is a contravention with the fundamental policy of Indian law shall not entail a review on the merits of the dispute.

Further as per Section 34(2A), an arbitral award arising out of arbitrations, other than international commercial arbitrations, may also be set aside by the Court, if the Court finds that the award is vitiated by patent illegality appearing on the face of the award. Provided that an award shall not be set aside merely on the ground of an erroneous application of the law or by re appreciation of evidence.

Answer 4A(ii)

E-stamping is a computer based application and a secured electronic way of stamping documents. The prevailing system of physical stamp paper/franking is being replaced by E-stamping system. To reduce the instances of counterfeits and errors, government introduced the e-stamping facility in 2013. The Stock Holding Corporation of India Limited (SHCIL) is the Central Record Keeping Agency (CRA).

Through modernisation, there has been an introduction of E-stamp or as known as an electronic stamp. E-Stamping is a computer-based procedure and a secure manner for the state to pay non-judicial stamping duties. The prevailing system of physical stamp paper / franking is being replaced by E-Stamping system.

Verification of e-stamping

An e-Stamp can be verified online by clicking on verify e-Stamp certificate and entering the required details i.e

1. State
2. Certificate Number (UIN)
3. Stamp Duty Type (Description of Document)
4. Certificate Issue Date
5. 6 character alphanumeric string

UIN is a Unique system generated number mentioned on the e-Stamp Certificate. Anybody, having the Unique Identification Number, can check the authenticity of the Certificate through www.shcilestamp.com.

Answer 4A(iii)

Digital Signature and Electronic Signature are not same as per the Information Technology Act, 2000. The differences between Electronic Signature and Digital Signature are as under:

Basis of Distinction	Electronic Signature	Digital Signature
Definition Section	Section 2(1)(ta)	2(1)(p)

(5 marks each)

Answer 5(a)

According to section 6 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 (the Act) a person, who desires to obtain any information under the Act shall make a request in writing or through electronic means in English or Hindi or in the official language of the area in which the application is being made, accompanying such fee as may be prescribed, to:

- (a) the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, of the concerned public authority;
- (b) the Central Assistant Public Information Officer or State Assistant Public Information Officer, as the case may be, specifying the particulars of the information sought by him or her:

However, where such request cannot be made in writing, the Central Public Information Officer or State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, shall render all reasonable assistance to the person making the request orally to reduce the same in writing.

An applicant making request for information shall not be required to give any reason for requesting the information or any other personal details except those that may be necessary for contacting him.

Answer 5(b)

Procedure for commencement of Conciliation Proceedings

According to Section 62(1) of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, the party initiating conciliation shall send to the other party a written invitation to conciliate, briefly identifying the subject of the dispute.

Section 62(2) states that Conciliation proceedings shall commence when the other party accepts in writing the invitation to conciliate.

Section 62(3) states that if the other party rejects the invitation, there will be no conciliation proceedings.

Section 62(4) states that if the party initiating conciliation does not receive a reply within thirty days from the date on which he sends the invitation, or within such other period of time as specified in the invitation, he may elect to treat this as a rejection of the invitation to conciliate and if he so elects, he shall inform in writing the other party accordingly.

Number of conciliators

According to Section 63 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, there shall be one conciliators unless parties agree for two or more. Where there are more than one conciliators, they ought as general rule, to act jointly.

Answer 5(c)

- (i) In the case A.R. Antulay vs. R.S. Nayak and Ors. (29.04.1988 - SC) : 1988 AIR 1531, the issue was whether the a case triable by Special Judge as provided under Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952 could be transferred to High Court or not. It was held that Court by its directions cannot confer jurisdiction to High Court of Bombay to try any case by itself for which it does not possess such jurisdiction.

The power to create or enlarge jurisdiction is legislative in character, so also the power to confer a right of appeal or to take away a right of appeal. Parliament alone can do it by law and no Court, whether superior or inferior or both combined can enlarge the jurisdiction of a Court or divest a person of his rights of revision and appeal. Thus, a Court by its discretion cannot confer jurisdiction to High Court to try any case by itself for which it does not possess such jurisdiction.

- (ii) The jurisdiction of Courts depending upon their powers are as under:
- (a) Original Jurisdiction- A court tries and decides suits filed before it.
 - (b) Appellate jurisdiction- A court hears appeals against decisions or decrees passed by sub- ordinate Courts.
 - (c) Criminal and Appellate jurisdiction- the Supreme Court, the High Courts and the District Courts have both original and appellate jurisdictions in various matters.

A territorial limit of jurisdiction for each court is fixed by the Government. Section 6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 deals with Pecuniary jurisdiction. Section 9 of Civil Procedure Code states that the Courts shall have jurisdiction to try all suits of a civil nature excepting suits of which their cognisance is either expressly or impliedly barred.

Answer 6(a)

Section 14 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963 inter alia provides that a contract which is so dependent on the personal qualifications of the parties that the court cannot enforce specific performance of its material terms or a contract, the performance of which involves the performance of a continuous duty which the court cannot supervise, cannot be specifically enforced.

In view of the above, Manoj will not succeed in seeking decree for specific performance of contract against Abhinav as contract of painting is a contract of personal nature which depends on personal qualification of Abhinav.

In the given situation contract entered into between Manoj and Abhinav have two stipulations one is positive stipulation that he will paint his house in a month, and another is negative stipulation that he will not accept any other painting job elsewhere. Here, though, Positive stipulation cannot be specifically enforced but negative stipulation can be enforced by taking injunction

The differences between Injunction and Specific Performance are as under:

Specific Performance	Injunction
It is decreed to compel the performance of an active duty	It is decreed to prevent the violation of negative duty
It is enforced when the act agreed to be done is in the performance wholly or partly of a trust	Injunction granted as a preventive relief i.e. preventing a party from doing that which he is under an obligation not to do.
Normally, it deals with contracts	It deals not only with contracts but also with torts and other subjects of equitable nature
If a contract is of positive in its nature, it calls for the relief of specific performance	If a contract is negative in its nature, it calls for the relief of injunction

Answer 6(b)

- (i) Section 17 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 provides that an admission is a statement, oral or documentary or contained in electronic form, which suggests any inference as to any fact in issue or relevant fact, and which is made by any of the persons, and under the circumstances, mentioned in Indian Evidence Act, 1872. An admission may be made by a party, by the agent or predecessor-in-interest of a party, by a person having joint propriety of pecuniary interest in the subject matter according to Section 18 or by a "reference" according to Section 20.

Section 20 of Indian Evidence Act, 1872 provides statements made by persons to whom a party to the suit has expressly referred for information in reference to a matter in dispute are admissions.

Illustration to section 20 provides as under:

A says to B—"Go and ask C, C knows all about it". C's statement is an admission.

In view of the above it can be said that Statement of C that 'Horse if Sound' is admission.

- (ii) Section 122 of Indian Evidence Act, 1872 provides that no person who is or has been married, shall be compelled to disclose any communication made to him during marriage by any person to whom he is or has been married; nor shall he be permitted to disclose any such communication, unless the person who made it, or his representative in interest, consents, except in suits between married persons, or proceedings in which one married person is prosecuted for any crime committed against the other.

In view of the above provision, it can be said that A's wife cannot act witness unless the person who made communication, or his representative in interest, consents.

Answer 6(c)

According to section 17 of Indian Stamp Act, 1899, all instruments chargeable with duty and executed by any person in India shall be stamped before or at the time of execution.

If the executant of a document has already completed the execution of the document and in the eye of law the document, could be said to have been executed, a subsequent stamping, (however close in time) could not render the document as one stamped at the time of execution.

In the case Rohini v. Fernandes, AIR 1956 Bom 421, where a promissory note is executed by 'A' and 'B' and a stamp is afterwards affixed and cancelled by 'A' by again signing it, the stamping has taken place subsequent to the execution and hence, the provisions of Section 17 are not complied with.

In view of the above provision and case law, it can be said that the provisions of Section 17 of Indian Stamp Act, 1899 are not complied in the given situation.

Answer 6(d)

The general rule is that an agreement made without consideration is void. But Section 25 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872 lays down certain exceptions which make a promise without consideration valid and binding.

Section 25(1) inter alia provides an exception to this general rule. It states that an agreement made without consideration is void, unless it is expressed in writing and registered under the law for the time being in force for the registration of documents, and is made on account of natural love and affection between parties standing in a near relation to each other.

According to the case Poonoo Bibi v. FyazBuksh, (1874) 15 Bom L.R. 57, a registered agreement between a husband and his wife to pay his earnings to her is a valid contract, as it is in writing, is registered, is between parties standing in near relation, and is for love and affection.

However, according to the case Rajlucky Deb v. Bhootnath (1900) 4 C.W.N. 488, where a husband by a registered document, after referring to quarrels and disagreement between himself and his wife, promised to pay his wife a sum of money for her maintenance and separate residence, it was held that the promise was unenforceable, as it was not made for love and affection.

In accordance with the above cases and provision, it can be said that an agreement that is expressed in writing and registered under the law for the time being in force for the registration of documents, and is made on account of natural love and affection between parties standing in a near relation to each other, is a valid contract in the given situation.

However, in the second situation, where a husband by a registered document, after referring to quarrels and disagreement between himself and his wife, promised to pay his wife a sum of money for her maintenance and separate residence, the promise is unenforceable.

OR (Alternate question to Q. No. 6)Answer 6A(i)

The Court shall apply the rule of construction that 'general provisions yield to special provisions'. It is the duty of the Court to avoid that and, whenever it is possible to do so, the construe provisions which appear to conflict so that they harmonize. Provisions of one Section of a statute cannot be used to defeat those of another unless it is impossible to effect re-conciliation.

This principle is also expressed in the Latin maxim Generalia specialibus non derogant (also known as the rule of implied exception) meaning general things do not derogate from special things; things general do not restrict or detract from things special; universal things do not detract from specific things. This well-known proposition of law says that when a matter falls under any specific provision, then it must be governed by that provision and not by the general provision. The general provisions must admit to the specific provisions of law.

Answer 6A(ii)

The courts in India control the exercise of administrative discretion, which can be grouped under two broad heads:

1. Authority has not exercised its discretion properly- 'abuse of discretion'.
2. Authority is deemed not to have exercised its discretion at all- 'non-application of mind'.

Abuse of Discretion

- (i) Mala fides: it means dishonest intention or corrupt motive. If the discretionary power exercised by authority with bad faith or dishonest intention, the action is quashed by the court. The intention may be to promote another public interest or private interest.
- (ii) Irrelevant considerations: if the administrative authority takes into account factors, circumstances or events wholly irrelevant or extraneous to the purpose mentioned in the statute, then administrative action is vitiated / likely to be quashed by the courts.
- (iii) Leaving out relevant considerations: The administrative authority who is required to take into account all the relevant facts, if leaves relevant consideration, its action will be invalid.
- (iv) Arbitrary orders: The order made should be based on facts and cogent reasoning and not on the whims and fancies of the adjudicatory authority.
- (v) Improper purpose: The discretionary power is required to be used for the purpose for which it has been given. If it is given for one purpose and used for another purpose it will amount to abuse of power.
- (vi) Colourable exercise of power: Where the discretionary power is exercised by the authority on which it has been conferred ostensibly for the purpose for which it has been given but in reality for some other purpose, it is taken as colourable exercise of the discretionary power and it is declared invalid.
- (vii) Non-compliance with procedural requirements and principles of natural justice: If the procedural requirement laid down in the statute is mandatory and it is not complied, the exercise of power will be bad. Whether the procedural requirement is mandatory or directory is decided by the court. Principles of natural justice are also required to be observed.
- (viii) Exceeding jurisdiction: The authority is required to exercise the power within the limits of the statute. Consequently, if the authority exceeds this limit, its action will be held to be ultra vires and, therefore, void.

Non-application of mind

- (i) Acting under dictation: Where the authority exercises its discretionary power under the instructions/dictation from superior authority, in such condition in substance the power is not exercised by it but by the other authority. Such decision or action is bad.

- (ii) Self-restriction: The authority entrusted with discretionary power is required to exercise it after considering the individual cases and should not impose fetters on its discretion by adopting a fixed rule of policy to be applied rigidly to all cases coming before it. Such decision or action will be bad.
- (iii) Acting mechanically and without due care: It will render the decision bad in law.

Answer 6A(iii)

The essentials of customs to be lawfully valid and binding are:

- (i) Immemorial (Antiquity): A custom to be valid must be proved to be immemorial; it must be ancient.
- (ii) Certainty: The custom must be certain and definite, and must not be vague and ambiguous.
- (iii) Reasonableness: A custom must be reasonable. It must be useful and convenient to the society. A custom is unreasonable if it is opposed to the principles of justice, equity and good conscience.
- (iv) Compulsory Observance: A custom to be valid must have been continuously observed without any interruption from times immemorial and it must have been regarded by those affected by it as an obligatory or binding rule of conduct.
- (v) Conformity with Law and Public Morality: A custom must not be opposed to morality or public policy nor must it conflict with statute law. If a custom is expressly forbidden by legislation and abrogated by a statute, it is inapplicable.
- (vi) Unanimity of Opinion: The custom must be general or universal. If practice is left to individual choice, it cannot be termed as custom.
- (vii) Peaceable Enjoyment: The custom must have been enjoyed peaceably without any dispute in a law court or otherwise.
- (viii) Consistency: There must be consistency among the customs. Custom must not come into conflict with the other established customs.

Answer 6A(iv)

Rule 6 of Order VIII of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 deals with set-off which is a reciprocal acquittal of debts between the plaintiff and defendant. It has the effect of extinguishing the plaintiff's claim to the extent of the amount claimed by the defendant as a counter claim.

In the case of Jitendra Kumar Khan and Ors. vs. The Peerless General Finance and Investment Company Limited and Ors. (07.08.2013 - SC) : 2013 ALL SCR 3259, it has been decided that Equitable set-off is different than the legal set-off; that it is independent of the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure; that the mutual debts and credits or cross-demands must have arisen out of the same transaction or to be connected in the nature and circumstances; that such a plea is raised not as a matter of right; and that it is the discretion of the court to entertain and allow such a plea or not.

In view of the above discussion, it can be said that in India distinction between Legal and Equitable set-off is recognised.

Question 1

Case Study :

Anil, Sunil and Vaishali are close friends from a renowned business family. After doing their masters from IIM, Ahmadabad they decided to start e-commerce in commodities. However, they were not sure about the legal format in which they should start the business. On request, M/s AB & Associates, a firm of practicing Company Secretaries advised them to form a company limited by shares being the best suitable device for running the business. After complying with the legal formalities, the company in the name and style of "Dynamic E-Commerce Ltd." (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") was incorporated on 1st April, 2020 by seven subscribers (including Anil, Sunil and Vaishali) to the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company with the main object of carrying e-commerce in grains, grocery, and medicines throughout India.

The registered office of the company is situated in Pune, the State of Maharashtra (India).

The capital clause of the Memorandum of Association (MOA) provides as under :

"The authorised share capital of the company shall be ₹1,00,00,000"

The Articles of Association (AOA) contain the capital clause as below :

"The authorised share capital of the company shall be ₹1,00,00,000 divided into 8,00,000 equity shares, carrying voting rights pari-passu of ₹10 each and 20,000 preference shares of ₹10 each."

The company offered preference shares to the financial institution, its promoters, and a group of individuals on which rate of dividend shall be 10% as per the term of issue. The financial institution refused to subscribe to the issue of preference shares on the contention that MOA is ambiguous as it does not authorise the company to issue class of preference share and hence the act of offering preference shares is ultra vires the company.

Considering the growing business, the company wants to shift its registered office from Pune to Mumbai in the State of Maharashtra (India). The Managing Director of the company has been apprised by the Legal Officer that the company may shift its registered office, as proposed, by passing a unanimous board resolution and filing necessary forms with the Registrar of Companies.

Encouraged with the financial results of last three years the Board of directors of the company intends to declare interim dividend for the first time in its next board meeting to be held on 31st May, 2023 out of the profit earned for the year 2022-23.

The balances extracted from the financial statement for the preceding year are as below :

Particulars	Financial Results for theyear ending 31st March, 2023 (₹ in lakh)
Net Profit for the year after depreciation but before interest and tax (NPBIT)	80.00
Charge of Interest on the profit on term loan	5.00
Fully Paid-up equity share capital	60.00
Fully Paid-up Preference share capital	16.00
Free Reserves	10.00
Term Loan	50.00
Contingent Liabilities for which profit is to be set aside	24.65

Assume Income-tax provision @ 25%

Based on the above facts answer the following :

- Whether the contention of the financial institution in refusing to subscribe to the issue of preference shares of the company is valid ?*
- Referring to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 advise the company of the compliance requirement for shifting of its registered office from Pune to Mumbai.*
- Referring to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Secretarial Standard-3 (SS-3) and requirement of the Board. Explain the meaning of "Divisible Profit" and can interim dividend be paid by the company out of free reserves, in the event of loss or inadequacy of profit during a financial year ?*

Answer 1(a)

Doctrine of Ultra vires:

Any activity done contrary to or in excess of the scope of activity of the Companies Act, Memorandum of Association or Articles of Association will be ultra vires. Ultra vires activities can be divided into the following three divisions:

Ultra Vires the Companies Act:

Any act done contrary to or in excess of the scope of activity of the Companies Act will be ultra vires the Companies Act. Such an act is void and cannot be ratified even by unanimous resolution of all the shareholders. Further, a provision contained in the memorandum, articles, agreement, or resolution shall be void if it's repugnant to any of the provisions in the Act.

Ultra Vires the Memorandum of Association:

In the case of a company whatever is not stated in the memorandum as the objects or powers is prohibited by the doctrine of ultra vires. As a result, an act which is ultra vires is void, and does not bind the company. Neither the company nor the contracting party can sue on it. Such an act is void and cannot be ratified even by unanimous resolution of all the shareholders.

Ultra Vires the Articles of Association:

If the acts of a company are ultra vires the Articles of Association but intra vires the memorandum of association (i.e., outside the scope of articles but within the powers conferred by the memorandum), it will be ultra vires the Articles of Association. These acts are also void, but the company in general meeting may alter the Articles by a special resolution and ratify the unauthorized acts.

Validity of contention of the bank:

In Re. South Durham Brewery Company [(1875) LR 7 HL 65c], the MOA of the company was unclear as to the classes of shares to be issued by it, but the AOA of the company gave power to issue shares of different classes as described therein. The Hon'ble Court held that Articles can be used to explain the ambiguity contained in the memorandum. "... their Lordships agree that in such cases the two documents must be read together at all events so far as may be necessary to explain any ambiguity appearing in the terms of the memorandum, or to supplement it upon any matter as to which it is silent."

Hence, the act of offering the preference shares is not ultra vires the Companies Act, the MOA or AOA of the company and the contention of the bank to refuse it is not valid in light of the explanation and case law cited above.

Answer 1(b)

In the instant case the change in registered office of the company shall be within the same state but from the jurisdiction of ROC, Pune to the jurisdiction of ROC, Mumbai.

As per section 12(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rule 28 of the Companies (Incorporation) Rules, 2014, no company shall change the place of its registered office from the jurisdiction of one Registrar to the jurisdiction of another Registrar within the same State unless such change is confirmed by the Regional Director on an application made in this behalf by the company. {Proviso to Section 12(5)}

Thereafter, the Regional Director shall examine the application and the application may be put up for orders without hearing and the order either approving or rejecting the application shall be passed within fifteen days of the receipt of application complete in all respects. The certified copy of order of the Regional Director, approving the alternation of memorandum for transfer of registered office company within the same State, shall be filed in Form No. INC-28 along with fee with the Registrar of State within thirty days from the date of receipt of certified copy of the order.

Under rule 28 of the Companies (Incorporation) Rules 2014, application shall be made to the Regional Director in Form No.INC.23 along with the fee and following documents shall be furnished:

- (a) Board Resolution for shifting of registered office;
- (b) Special Resolution of the members of the company approving the shifting of registered office;
- (c) a declaration given by the Key Managerial Personnel or any two directors authorized by the Board, that the company has not defaulted in payment of dues to its workmen and has either the consent of its creditors for the proposed shifting or has made necessary provision for the payment thereof;
- (d) a declaration not to seek change in the jurisdiction of the Court where cases for prosecution are pending;
- (e) acknowledged copy of intimation to the Chief Secretary of the state as to the proposed shifting and that the employees' interest is not adversely affected consequent to proposed shifting.

Accordingly, the company may shift its registered office from Pune to Mumbai only after passing Board resolution and a special resolution in the general meeting, obtaining confirmation order of the Regional Director and complying with the other procedural requirements. Hence, the advice of the legal officer is not correct.

As per rule 12(6) the confirmation referred to in sub-section (5) shall be communicated within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of application by the Regional Director to the company and the company shall file the confirmation with the Registrar within a period of sixty days of the date of confirmation who shall register the same and certify the registration within a period of thirty days from the date of filing of such confirmation.

Answer 1(c)

'Divisible profits' means the profits which the law allows the company to distribute to the shareholders by way of dividend. According to Palmer's Company Law, the terms 'divisible profits' and 'profits in the legal sense' are synonymous. Thus, the profits of a business mean the net proceeds of the concern after deducting the necessary outgoings without which those proceeds could not be earned. [Bharat Insurance Co. Ltd. v. CIT (1931) 1 Com Cases 192, 196 (Lah)].

Divisible profits are that portion of the profit which can be distributed legally among the shareholders of the company. These profits are distributed by way of dividends, but only after provisions for past losses and reserves have been made.

Interim Dividend

As per Section 123(3) of the Companies Act, 2013, the Board of Directors of a company may declare interim dividend during any financial year or at any time during the period from closure of financial year till holding of the annual general meeting out of the surplus in the profit and loss account or out of profits of the financial year for which such interim dividend is sought to be declared or out of profits generated in the financial year till the quarter preceding the date of declaration of the interim dividend.

In case the company has incurred loss during the current financial year up to the end of the quarter immediately preceding the date of declaration of interim dividend, such interim dividend shall not be declared at a rate higher than the average dividends declared by the company during the immediately preceding three financial years.

It is also provided in Article 81 of table F that Subject to the provisions of section 123, the Board may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to it to be justified by the profits of the company.

Therefore, before approving payment of interim dividend, the directors should satisfy themselves that the profit is available for distribution by way of dividend.

SS-3 provides that in the event of a loss or inadequacy of profits during a financial year, no Interim Dividend shall be declared/ paid out of Free Reserves. Hence, in this case interim dividend cannot be declared by the Board of directors.

Answer 2(a)

As per section 213 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Tribunal may order after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the parties concerned that affairs of a company ought to be investigated. The Tribunal may also make such order on an application made to it by any other person or otherwise, if it is satisfied that the circumstances suggest that the business of the company is being conducted with intent to defraud its creditors, members, or any other person or otherwise for a fraudulent or unlawful purpose or in a manner oppressive to any of its members or that the company was formed for any fraudulent or unlawful purpose.

Hence, the Companies Act allows any other person to make an application before the Tribunal if the circumstances so suggest. The objection of the company shall not be tenable and the application of the recognized trade union shall be admissible for appropriate order of the Tribunal.

Answer 2(b)

As per section 204(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, every listed company and a company belonging to other class of companies as may be prescribed shall annex with its Board's report, a secretarial audit report, given by a company secretary in practice, in such form as may be prescribed. As per rule 9 of the Companies (Appointment and Remuneration of Managerial Personnel) Rules, 2014, for the purposes of section 204(1), the other class of companies shall be as under-

- a. Every public company having a paid-up share capital of fifty crore rupees or more; or
- b. Every public company having a turnover of two hundred fifty crore rupees or more; or
- c. Every company having outstanding loans or borrowings from banks or public financial institutions of one hundred crore rupees or more.

Further, as per Regulation 24A of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 [SEBI (LODR) Regulations], every listed entity and its material unlisted subsidiaries incorporated in India shall undertake secretarial audit and shall annex a Secretarial Audit Report given by a Company Secretary in Practice, in such form as specified, with the annual report of the listed entity. Hence, secretarial audit for AB Pvt. Ltd, is compulsory and not voluntary.

Every listed entity shall submit a Secretarial Compliance Report in such form as specified, to stock exchanges, within sixty days from end of each financial year.

As per explanation to Regulation 24(1) of the SEBI (LODR) Regulation, 2015 "Material Subsidiary" shall mean a subsidiary, whose income or net worth exceeds twenty percent of the consolidated income or net worth respectively, of the listed company and its subsidiaries in the immediately preceding accounting year.

Answer 2(c)

Section 82 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rule 8 of the Companies (Registration of charges) Rules, 2014:

Satisfaction of Charge is another important aspect relating to debts secured by a charge. In case of a full and complete payment of the secured charge registered with the Registrar, the company or charge-holder shall within a period of 30 days from the date of payment or satisfaction in full of any charge registered under Chapter VI of the Companies Act, 2013, give intimation of the same to the Registrar in Form No. CHG-4 along with the prescribed fees. The Registrar may, on an application by the company or the charge holder, allow such intimation of payment or satisfaction to be made within a period of 300 days of such payment or satisfaction on payment of such additional fees as may be prescribed.

On receipt of such intimation, the Registrar shall issue a notice to the holder of the charge calling upon him to show cause within such time not exceeding 14 days, as may be specified in such notice, as to why payment or satisfaction in full should not be recorded as intimated to the Registrar. If no cause is shown, by such holder of the charge, the Registrar shall order that a memorandum of satisfaction shall be entered in the register of charges maintained by the registrar under section 81 and shall inform the company, that he has done so. If the cause is shown to the Registrar, he shall record a note to that effect in the register of charges and shall inform the company accordingly.

However, the aforesaid notice shall not be sent, in case intimation to the Registrar is in specified form along with the Letter of the charge holder stating that the amount has been satisfied, which is a mandatory attachment in all cases of Form CHG -4 and is signed by the holder of charge [Proviso to Section 82(2)]

Hence, filing of satisfaction of charge after clearance of entire dues of the bank does not depend on obtaining no due certificate from the bank and in absence of which the Registrar will get it confirmed from the lending bank. Hence, Edge Ltd. should have filed the same within the time limit and the ROC would have obtained the confirmation thereto from the bank. The company may therefore file it with payment of additional fees for delayed filing of satisfaction of charge.

Answer 2(d)(i)

According to section 134(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 the financial statement, including Consolidated financial statement, if any, shall be approved by the Board of Directors before they are signed on behalf of the Board by:

- (a) The chairperson of the company where he is authorized by the Board; or
- (b) Two directors out of which one shall be managing director, if any; and
- (c) The Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and the Company Secretary of the company, wherever they are appointed.

Further, section 134(6) of the Companies Act, 2013 provides that the Board's report and any annexures thereto shall be signed by its chairperson of the company if he is authorised by the Board and where he is not so authorised, shall be signed by at least two directors, one of whom shall be a managing director, or by the director where there is one director.

In given case, the Balance Sheet and Profit & Loss Account have been signed by Mr. A and Mr. B, the directors. In view of the provisions of Section 134(1) of the Act, the Managing Director Mr. R should be one of the two signatories. Since, the company has also employed a full time Secretary, he should also sign the Balance Sheet and Profit & Loss Account. Boards Report is required to be signed by the chairperson of the company or by the two directors, one of whom shall be the managing director, in this case Mr. R being the managing director and any of other director (A or B or C or D) can sign the Board Report. Therefore, authentication done by two directors (i.e. Mr. A and Mr. B) is not valid.

Answer 2(d)(ii)

As per section 134(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, in case of a One Person Company, the financial statements shall be signed by only one director, for submission to the auditor for his report thereon.

In the given case, the financial statements including Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit & Loss and Board's Report should be signed by one director and hence, the authentication is in order.

Answer 3(a)

As per Section 239 of the Companies Act, 2013, the books and papers of a company which has been amalgamated with, or whose shares have been acquired by, another company under this Chapter (Chapter XV Compromises, Arrangements and Amalgamations) shall not be disposed of without the prior permission of the Central Government and before granting such permission, that Government may appoint a person to examine the books and papers or any of them for the purpose of ascertaining whether they contain any evidence of the commission of an offence in connection with the promotion or formation, or' the management of the affairs, of the transferor company or its amalgamation or the acquisition of its shares.

Hence, the decision of the Board of directors of Y Ltd. is not valid. For disposal of record of the transferor company the transferee company should obtain the prior permission of the Central Government to be granted after following the procedure laid down under section 239 explained above.

Answer 3(b)

- (i) As per Section 455 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013, where a company formed and registered under the Companies Act for a future project or to hold an asset or intellectual property and has no significant accounting transaction, such a company or an inactive company may make an application to the Registrar in such manner as may be prescribed for obtaining the status of a dormant company.

According to Explanation (i) to Section 455 of the Companies Act, 2013, "inactive company" means a company which has not been carrying on any business or operation, or has not made any significant accounting transaction during the last two financial years, or has not filed financial statements and annual returns during the last two financial years.

- (ii) Explanation (ii) to Section 455 of the Companies Act, 2013 states, "significant accounting transaction" means any transaction other than:
- payment of fees by a Company to the Registrar;
 - payments made by it to fulfil the requirements of this Act or any other law;
 - allotment of shares to fulfil the requirements of this Act; and
 - payments for maintenance of its office and records.

Therefore, according to the Explanation (ii) to Section 455 of the Companies Act, 2013, payment of applicable filing fees by a Company to the Registrar of Companies cannot be considered as significant accounting transaction.

- (iii) According to Rule 3 of the Companies (Miscellaneous) Rules, 2014, a Company may make an application in prescribed form MSC-1 to the Registrar for obtaining the status of a Dormant Company in accordance with the provisions of section 455 of the Companies Act, 2013 after passing a special resolution to this effect in the general meeting of the company or after issuing a notice to all the shareholders of the company for this purpose and obtaining consent of at least 3/4th shareholders (in value).

Thus, application made by Sanjay Diagnostic Limited is in order, as a notice is issued to all the shareholders of the Company for this purpose and it has obtained consent of 82% of shareholders in value which fulfills the requirement of at least 3/4th shareholders (in value).

Answer 3(c)

Section 2(31) of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 2(1)(c) of Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 2014, 'deposit' includes any receipt of money by way of deposit or loan or in any other form by a company, but does not include the receipts specified under the Rules.

The receipts under Serial No. 1, 2 and 3 will fall in the exempted category and shall not be considered as deposits.

The other 2 receipts at Serial No. 4 and 5 will constitute the deposits.

Rule 16 of the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 2014, states that every company to which these rules apply, shall on or before the 30th day of June, of every year, file with the Registrar, a return in Form DPT-3 along with the fee as provided in the Companies (Registration Offices and Fees).

Explanation - It is hereby clarified that Form DPT-3 shall be used for filing return of deposit or particulars of transaction not considered as deposit or both by every company other than Government company.

Considering the explanation read with Form DPT-3, XYZ Ltd. is required to report all transactions at Serial No. 1 to 5 in Form DPT-3 whether considered as deposit or not.

Answer 4(a)

Section 218 of the Companies Act, 2013 states that the company shall require to take approval of the Tribunal before taking action against the employee, if there is any pendency of any proceedings against any person concerned in the conduct and management of the affairs of the company.

The company shall require approval in the following circumstances:

- discharge or suspension of an employee; or
- punishment to an employee by dismissal, removal, reduction in rank or otherwise; or
- change in the terms of employment to the disadvantage of employee;

The Tribunal shall notify its objection to the action proposed in writing.

In case, the company, other body corporate or person concerned does not receive the approval of the Tribunal within 30 days of making the application, it may proceed to take the action proposed against the employee.

In case the company, other body corporate or person concerned is dissatisfied with the objection raised by the Tribunal, it may, within a period of 30 days of the receipt of the notice of the objection, prefer an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal in such manner and on payment of prescribed fees.

The decision of the Appellate Tribunal on such appeal shall be final and binding on the Tribunal and on the company, other body corporate or person concerned.

In view of the above provision of the Companies Act, 2013:

- i. Yes, the termination of Mr. Ranjan made by Moon Limited (the company) is valid in law and the company can do so as no approval from the Tribunal has been received within 30 days of making the application.
- ii. In this scenario, Mr. Ranjan has no remedy available. As per the provision of the law appeal to the Appellate Tribunal can be made only if the person is dissatisfied with the objection raised by the Tribunal. In this case the Tribunal has not replied, hence Mr. Ranjan cannot prefer an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal.
- iii. In this case, Mr. Ranjan can prefer an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within 30 days of receiving letter of objection raised by the Tribunal and with payment of prescribed fee.

Answer 4(b)

According to Section 13(8) of the Companies Act, 2013 a company, which has raised money from public through prospectus and still has any unutilized amount out of the money so raised, shall not change its objects for which it raised the money through prospectus unless a special resolution is passed by the company and —

- i. The details in respect of such resolution shall also be published in the newspapers (one in English and one in vernacular language) which is in circulation at the place where the registered office of the company is situated and shall also be placed on the website of the company, if any, indicating there in the justification for such change.
- ii. The dissenting shareholders shall be given an opportunity to exit by the promoters and shareholders having control in accordance with SEBI regulations.

As per section 13(9), the Registrar shall register any alteration of the memorandum with respect to the objects of the company and certify the registration within a period of thirty days from the date of filing of the special resolution in accordance with section 13(6)(a).

Therefore, the company will have to file copy of special resolution with ROC and ROC will certify the registration within a period of thirty days. As per section 13(10) No alteration made under this section shall have any effect until it has been registered in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Thus, keeping in view the above provisions, yes, the company can add the object of software development business in its memorandum and utilize the available funds for the new business. However, it will have to comply with above requirements.

Answer 4(c)

- i. A member who is a minor is wholly incompetent to enter into a contract/agreement and as such cannot become a member of a company. Consequently, an agreement by a minor to take shares is void ab-initio.

- ii. An agreement in writing for a minor to become a member may be signed on behalf of the minor by his lawful guardian and the registration of transfer of shares in the name of the minor, acting through his or her guardian, especially where the shares are fully paid cannot be refused on the ground of the transferee being a minor [Miss Nandita Jain v. Benett Coleman and Co. Ltd., Appeal No. 27 of 1972 dated 17.2.78].
- iii. If shares are transferred to a minor, the transferor will remain liable for all future calls on such shares so long as they are held by the minor even if the transferor was ignorant of his minority.
- iv. In this case, a minor is not required to restore the dividend received by him during his minority and the company cannot invoke the doctrine of estoppel against him. [Sadiq Ali v. Jai Kishori, (1928) 30 Bom. L.R. 1346].

Answer 4A(a)

Difference between the Member and the Shareholder

Sr.No.	Member	Shareholder
1	Section 2(55) of the Companies Act, 2013 specifies the meaning of 'member'.	On the other hand, the meaning of 'shareholder' is not defined under the Companies Act, 2013
2	A shareholder becomes a member of a company, once his name is entered into the company's register of members or if he is a subscriber to the incorporation of the company. Every other person who agrees in writing to become a member of the company and whose name is entered in its register of members shall, be a member of the company.	The person who has ownership of shares of a company is known as shareholder. Further, companies limited by guarantee do not have a share capital, and consequently, their members are not shareholders.
3	The subscribers to the Memorandum of a company who shall be deemed to have agreed to become members of the company, and on its registration, shall be entered as members in its register of members. The person who signs the memorandum of association with the company becomes a member.	After signing the memorandum, a person may become shareholder only when the shares are allotted to him.
4	The bearer of a share warrant is not a Member.	Whereas, the holder of a share warrant is a Shareholder.

- 5 A member who has transferred his shares, though he does not hold any shares yet he continues to be member of the company until the transfer is registered and his name is removed from the register of members maintained by the company.
- Similarly, A person may be a holder of share by transfer but will not become its member until the transfer is registered in the books of the company in his favour and his name is entered in the register of members.

Answer 4A(b)

As per section 212 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Central Government may assign the investigation into affairs of a company to the Serious Frauds Investigation Office (SFIO) on the basis of an opinion formed from the following:

- The Registrar or inspector shall, after the inspection of the books of account or an inquiry under section 206 and other books and papers of the company under section 207, submit a report in writing to the Central Government along with such documents, if any, and such report may, if necessary, include a recommendation that further investigation into the affairs of the company is necessary giving his reasons in support. The Central Government on receipt of such report can order an investigation under Serious Frauds Investigation Office;
- On intimation of a special resolution passed by a company that its affairs ought to be investigated;
- In the public interest;
- On request from any Department of the Central Government or a State Government, the Central Government may, by order, assign the investigation into the affairs of the said company to the Serious Fraud Investigation Office and its Director, may designate such number of inspectors, as he may consider necessary for the purpose of such investigation.

Answer 4A(c)

As per rule 38 of the Companies (Incorporation Rules), 2014, the application for allotment of Director Identification Number upto three Directors, reservation of a name, incorporation of company and appointment of Directors of the proposed for One Person Company, private company, public company and a company falling under section 8 of the Act. Shall be filed in SPICe+ (Simplified Proforma for Incorporating Company Electronically Plus:INC-32) with the Registrar, within whose jurisdiction the registered office of the company is proposed to be situated. Any person (not having approved DIN) proposed to become a first director in a new company shall have to make an application through web form SPICe+ (Simplified Proforma for Incorporating Company Electronically Plus: INC-32) for allotment of DIN.

For the purposes of filing SPICe Form, the particulars of maximum of three directors shall be allowed to be filled in SPICe+ (Simplified Proforma for Incorporating company Electronically Plus: INC-32), and allotment of Director Identification Number of maximum of three proposed directors shall be permitted in SPICe+ (Simplified Proforma for Incorporating company Electronically Plus: INC-32) in case of proposed directors not having approved Director Identification Number.

The applicant is required to attach the proof of Identity, address, specimen signature duly verified. etc. along with the application. DIN would be allocated to User only after approval of the form. [Section 153 read with rule 9 of the Companies (Appointment and Qualification of Directors) Rules, 2014].

Once the SPICe+ (Simplified Proforma for Incorporating Company Electronically Plus: INC-32) is processed and found complete, company would be registered and CIN would be allocated. Also DINs gets issued to the proposed Directors who do not have a valid DIN.

Thus, with this facility Anil, Sunil and Sunita may obtain DIN simultaneously with the process of incorporation of the company and can assume the office of directorship immediately on incorporation of the company and meet the requirement of having minimum number of directors.

Question 5

Facts of the Case :

ABC Limited was incorporated on 14th October 2020 with the objective of manufacturing of Cement. The plant was commissioned in April 2021, at a cost of ₹ 580 Crores at Somnath, Gujarat. The Company was promoted by Chahal group. It is important to note that at present, ABC Limited is not a listed Company.

Over a period of time, ABC Limited has grown to become one of India's largest manufacturers and exporters of cement and having 800 members. The Quorum fixed by the Articles of ABC Limited was 7 members present.

In line with its long-term vision, the company has diversified into Home Textiles, Cotton Yarn, Industrial/Edible Salt and Lignite Mining.

The current composition of the Board of Directors of ABC Limited is as follows :

- Total number of directors : 10
- Independent Directors : 5 (including one woman director)
- Whole-Time Directors : 3 (including Managing Director, Executive Director - Finance, and Executive Director - Operations)
- Non-Executive Promoter Directors : 2 (1 Chairman and 1 Vice Chairman).

The Board approved Notice to call 1st Annual General Meeting on 24th December 2021 at 2.30 P.M. (IST) to approve several resolutions including adoption of audited financial statements of the Company for the financial year ended March 31, 2021; approval regarding appointment of directors etc. Record Date/Cut-off date for said AGM was fixed on 17th December 2021.

Notice of the AGM contains Notes related to Proxy, which is reproduced as under :

A MEMBER ENTITLED TO ATTEND AND VOTE AT THE MEETING IS ENTITLED TO APPOINT A PROXY TO ATTEND AND VOTE INSTEAD OF HIMSELF. A PROXY NEED NOT BE A MEMBER. PROXIES IN ORDER TO BE EFFECTIVE MUST BE DEPOSITED AT THE REGISTERED OFFICE OF THE COMPANY NOT LESS THAN FORTY EIGHT HOURS BEFORE THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE MEETING. A PROXY FORM IS ENCLOSED WITH THIS NOTICE.

Based on the above facts of the case study answer the following questions :

- (a) ABC Limited issued a notice on 1st December, 2021 to hold its 1st Annual General Meeting (AGM) on 24th December, 2021. Check the validity of the notice referring to the provisions of the relevant act and secretarial standards in case it is sent by post.

- (d) At a General meeting of the company, a matter was to be passed by a special resolution. Out of 400 members present, 200 members voted in favour of the resolution, 50 members voted against it and 50 members' votes were found invalid. The remaining 100 members abstained from voting. The Chairman of the meeting declared the resolution as passed. With reference to the provisions of the Companies Act. 2013, examine the validity of the Chairman's declaration?

(5 marks)

Answer 5(a)

As per section 101(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, a general meeting may be called by giving not less than 21 clear days' notice in writing or through electronic mode in such manner as may be prescribed. As provided in para 1.2.6 of secretarial standard-2 (SS-2), for the purpose of reckoning 21 days clear notice, the day of sending the notice and the day of Meeting shall not be counted. Further, in case the company sends the notice by post or courier, additional two days shall be provided for the service of notice.

Date of holding AGM: 24th December 2021;

Date of dispatch of notice: 1st December 2021;

Days to be excluded:

- (a) Day of holding AGM i.e., 24th December 2021.
- (b) Day of dispatch of notice i.e., 1st December 2021.
- (c) 2 additional days for service of notice i.e., 2nd & 3rd December 2021 (SS-2 Para 1.2.6)

Number of days' notice given: 20 days (i.e., from 4th December 2021 to 23rd December 2021), which is short by 1 day.

Number of days' notice required under section 101 of the Act is 21 clear days. Therefore, it is not a case of valid notice.

Answer 5(b)

- i. Since Mr. A is the representative of the Governor of Maharashtra, shall be treated as a member personally presents (Section 112).
- ii. Preference shareholders can vote only in relation to such matters which directly affect their rights. (Section 47)

In this case, meeting was called to take decision on approval of financial statements and appointment of Directors, which does not affect their rights. Therefore, Mr. B & Mr. C cannot be counted for the purposes of quorum, though they may be personally present.

Since Mr. D represents two body corporates, he would be treated as two members personally present. (Section 113)

- iii. Since Mr. E, Mr. F, Mr. G and Mr. H are proxies of shareholders and members are not personally present. They are not considered while counting quorum. (Section 105)

As per the section 103 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013, unless the articles of the company provide for a larger number,—

- (a) in case of a public company,—
 - (i) five members personally present if the number of members as on the date of meeting is not more than one thousand;
 - (ii) fifteen members personally present if the number of members as on the date of meeting is more than one thousand but up to five thousand;
 - (iii) thirty members personally present if the number of members as on the date of the meeting exceeds five thousand.

From the above analysis, it can be concluded that only 3 members are personally present and the Quorum fixed by the Articles of ABC Ltd was 7 members present, so they do not constitute proper quorum.

Answer 5(c)

Section 105 of the Companies Act, 2013 provides that a member, who is entitled to attend and to vote, can appoint another person as a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting on his behalf. As per Section 105 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Para 6.6.1 of SS-2, a proxy should be deposited 48 hours before the time of the meeting.

The SS-2 (Secretarial standard-2) also states that where allowed, a member can appoint one or more proxies, to attend and vote instead of himself and a proxy need not be a member. If a Company receives multiple Proxies for the same holdings of a Member, the Proxy which is dated last shall be considered valid.

In the given case, the proxies should have, therefore, been deposited on or before 22nd December 2021 latest by 2.30 P.M. (the date of the meeting being 24th December 2021, at 2.30 P.M.). Proxy in favour of Mr. Y was deposited on 23rd December 2021 at 3.30 P.M. Therefore, proxy in favour of Mr. Y has become invalid, being less than 48 hours before the time of the meeting.

Thus, rejecting the proxy in favour of Mr. X is unsustainable; because proxy in favour of Mr. X is valid since it was deposited in time (i.e. on 22nd December 2021 at 10.00 A.M.).

Inspection of proxy:

As per section 105(8) of the Companies Act, 2013, every member entitled to vote at a meeting of the company, or on any resolution to be moved thereat, is entitled to inspect the proxies lodged with the company, if at least 3 days' notice in writing is given to the company. Such notice shall be received at least three days before the commencement of the Meeting.

As per para 6.8.2 of the SS-2, proxies shall be made available for inspection during the period beginning twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the commencement of the Meeting and ending with the conclusion of the Meeting. Every Member entitled to vote on any Resolution at a General Meeting is entitled to inspect the proxies lodged with the company. The inspection should be allowed during the period starting twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the commencement of the Meeting and ending with the conclusion of the Meeting. Inspection shall be allowed between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. during such period.

Answer 5(d)

Section 114 of the Companies Act, 2013 deals with Ordinary and Special Resolution.

As per Section 114(2) of the Companies Act, 2013, a resolution shall be a special resolution when:

- (a) the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution has been duly specified in the notice calling the general meeting or other intimation given to the members of the resolution;
- (b) the notice required under this Act has been duly given; and

- (c) the votes cast in favour of the resolution, whether on a show of hands, or electronically or on a poll, as the case may be, by members who, being entitled so to do, vote in person or by proxy or by postal ballot, are required to be not less than three times the number of the votes, if any, cast against the resolution by members so entitled and voting.

The method of voting might be through show of hands, electronic voting, poll or any other permitted method or postal ballot. The number of votes of only the members who are entitled and voting are to be counted. Hence, the persons who abstain from voting or are not allowed to vote (whether under the provisions of this Act or otherwise) are not to be counted. Further, the notice required to be given may be given either by the company or the member proposing the resolution.

In the given case, 200 members voted in favour of the resolution, and 50 members voted against it. Invalid votes and person abstained from voting shall not be counted.

So, total valid votes : 250

Votes in favour : 200

Votes against : 50

Voting percentage in favour = 80% (i.e. $200/250 \times 100$), which is more than 75% and validly passed.

Hence, declaration by the Chairman of the meeting is valid.

Answer 6A(i)

Section 173(3) of the Companies Act, 2013 requires that not less than seven days' notice in writing shall be given to the directors for the Board meeting. Notice issued at a shorter period than 7 days shall be called as a shorter notice. As per SS-1 the fact that the meeting is being held at a shorter notice shall be stated in the notice. Therefore, yes the Board Meeting can be convened at a shorter notice.

Board meeting, at a shorter notice to transact urgent business shall be held, subject to following conditions:

(a) If the company is required to have independent director:

1. Presence of at least one independent director is required.
2. In case of absence of independent director, decision taken at such meeting shall be circulated to all the directors, and shall be final only on ratification thereof by at least one independent director.

As per para 1.3.11 of the SS-1, in case the company does not have an Independent Director, the decisions shall be final only on ratification thereof by a majority of the Directors of the company, unless such decisions were approved at the Meeting itself by a majority of Directors of the company.

As per Rule 3(6) of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, with respect to every meeting conducted through video conferencing or other audio-visual means authorized under these rules, the scheduled venue of the meeting as set forth in the notice convening the meeting, shall be deemed to be the place of the said meeting and all recordings of the proceedings at the meeting shall be deemed to be made at such place.

Answer 6A(ii)

- (a) According to Section 151 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rule 7(1) of the Companies (Appointment and qualifications of Directors) Rules, 2014, a listed company may have one director elected by such small shareholders in such manner and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed. A listed company, may upon notice of not less than:
1. One thousand small shareholders; or
 2. One-tenth of the total number of such shareholders, whichever is lower; have a small shareholders director elected by the small shareholder.
- A 'Small Shareholder's Director' may be elected voluntarily by any listed company. Thus, a listed company, may, on its own, act to appoint a Small Shareholder's Director. In such a case, no notice from small shareholder(s) is required. The Act has used the expression "may" and not "shall." Hence, it is not mandatory for a listed company to appoint small shareholders' director.
- (b) As per rule 7(5) of the of the Companies (Appointment and qualifications of Directors) Rules, 2014, the tenure of small shareholders' director shall not exceed a period of 3 consecutive years and he shall not be liable to retire by rotation. Further he shall not be eligible for re-appointment after the expiry of his tenure.
- (c) As per rule 7(8) of the of the Companies (Appointment and qualifications of Directors) Rules, 2014, a person shall not hold the office of small shareholders' director in more than two companies. If second company is in competitive business or is in conflict with business of the first company, he shall not be appointed in second company.
- (d) As per rule 7(4) of the of the Companies (Appointment and qualifications of Directors) Rules, 2014, Small shareholders' director shall be considered as an independent director, if-
- a. he is eligible for appointment as an independent director as per sub-section (6) of section 149; and
 - b. he gives a declaration of his independence as per sub-section (7) of section 149.

Answer 6A(iii)

Section 180 of the Companies Act, 2013 deals with the restrictions on the power of Board. As per Section 180(1)(c) of the Companies Act, 2013, the Board of Directors of a company, without obtaining the approval of shareholders in a general meeting by passing special resolution, can borrow money including money already borrowed upto an amount which does not exceed the aggregate of paid-up capital of the company, free reserve and securities premium. Such borrowing shall not include temporary loans obtained from the company's bankers in ordinary course of business. Here, free reserves do not include the reserves set apart for specific purpose.

Since the decision to borrow is to be taken in a meeting to be held on 15th October 2023, the figures relevant for this purpose are the figures as per the Balance Sheet as at 31.03.2023. According to the above provisions, the Board of Directors of GCL Textiles Limited can borrow, without obtaining approval of the shareholders in general meeting, upto an amount calculated as follows:

Particulars	Amt in Rs.
Paid up Capital	37,50,000
General Reserve (being free reserve)	25,00,000
Credit balance in Profit & Loss Account (to be treated as free reserve)	5,00,000
Debenture Redemption Reserve
(This reserve is not to be Considered since it is kept apart for specific purpose of debenture redemption)	-
Securities Premium	1,00,000
Aggregate premium of paid up capital, Free reserve And securities premium	68,50,000
Total borrowing power of the Board of Directors of the company, i.e. 100% of the aggregate of paid up capital, free reserves and securities premium	68,50,000
Less : Amount already borrowed as secured loans	15,00,000
Amount upto which the Board of Directors can further Borrow without the approval of shareholders in a general meeting	53,50,000

Answer 6A(iv)

As per section 181 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Board of directors of a Company without obtaining the approval of shareholders in a general meeting, can make contributions to genuine charitable and other funds upto an amount which, in a financial year, does not exceed five per cent of its average net profits during the three financial year's immediately preceding, the financial year.

Accordingly, to the above provisions, the Board of Directors of GCL Textiles Limited can make contributions to charitable funds, without obtaining approval of the shareholders in a general meeting, upto an amount calculated as follows:

Net Profit for the three years (as calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013):

Particulars	Rs.
For the financial year ended 31.03.2021	6,25,000
For the financial year ended 31.03.2022	9,50,000
For the financial year ended 31.03.2023	17,25,000
Total	33,00,000
Average of net profits during three preceding years	11,00,000
Five percent thereof	55,000

Hence, the maximum amount that can be donated by the Board of Directors to charitable funds by GCL Textiles Limited during the financial year 2023-24 will be Rs. 55,000 without seeking the approval of the shareholders in a general meeting.

PART I

Question 1

R is carrying on the business of trading of readymade garments as a sole proprietor in Delhi. He wants to diversify his business by opening the branches in other cities across the country. Due to shortage of funds and other resources, he approaches his friend K, who is a Practising Company Secretary (PCS) for seeking his advice on the form of business organisation which may be more beneficial for him. K advises him to convert his sole proprietorship form of business into a private company by involving his friends and relatives as the directors and members of the private company. He describes the characteristics of a private company under the Companies Act, 2013. K further advises R that the conversion of his existing form of business into a private company would provide him easy access to capital needed for diversifying his business.

In accordance with the advice of K, R decided to convert his sole proprietorship business into a private company with the proposed name, R Holding Pvt. Ltd. He makes an application to the Registrar of Companies (RoC), Delhi for reservation of the proposed name of the company, R Holding Pvt. Ltd. However, the proposed name is rejected by RoC, Delhi citing the common reasons for rejection of the proposed name. R makes a fresh application for reservation of the proposed new name of the company, R Cloth Trading Pvt. Ltd. and the name is reserved by RoC, Delhi. After filing the necessary e-forms and documents with RoC, Delhi, the company, R Cloth Trading Pvt. Ltd. is incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013.

K informs R about the utility of the Permanent Account Number (PAN) and accordingly, R obtains PAN in the name of the company. K also helps him in getting the GST registration in the name of the company and advises him to go for "Composition Scheme" under the GST Act, 2017. R approaches the banks for sanctioning loan for his business to enable him to open branches in the State of Uttar Pradesh. However, due to stringent loan sanctioning process of the banks, R fails to get loan from the banks for his business. R approaches K for seeking his help to arrange the required funds for the business and K helps R in getting loan for his business from, ST Finvest Ltd., a Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC). The loan is processed quickly by ST Finvest Ltd. to R Cloth Trading Pvt. Ltd. at a very competitive rate of interest.

In view of the above, answer the following :

- (a) Write down the characteristics of a private company under the Companies Act, 2013 as described by K to R.
- (b) Describe the common reasons on the basis of which RoC, Delhi has rejected the name reservation application of R with the proposed name, R Holding Pvt. Ltd.
- (c) State the utility of PAN for R Cloth Trading Pvt. Ltd.
- (d) Why does K advise R to go for "Composition Scheme" under the GST Act, 2017 ?

- (e) Discuss the privileges available to ST Finvest Ltd. to process loan to R Cloth Trading Pvt. Ltd. quickly at a very competitive rate of interest as compared to the banks.

Answer 1(a)

Characteristics of a Private Company

- Restricts the right to transfer its shares.
- Minimum two members are required in private company.
- Limits the number of its members to two hundred.
- Prohibits any invitation to the public to subscribe for any securities of the company.
- Shareholders in the company have limited liability.
- There is no risk of takeover as transfer of shares is restricted.
- As private companies cannot raise funds from public and hence legal compliances are comparatively less.
- A private company have perpetual succession. Which means that company continue to exist even after death of owners.

Answer 1(b)

Section 4(2) of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rule 8 and 8A of the Companies (Incorporation) Rules, 2014, provides that the name:

- (i) shall not be identical with or resemble too nearly to the name of an existing company;
- (ii) shall not constitute an offence under any law for the time being in force; or
- (iii) is not undesirable in the opinion of the Central Government.

Further, a company shall not be registered with a name which contains:

- (a) any word or expression which is likely to give the impression that the company is in any way connected with, or having the patronage of, the Central Government, any State Government, or any local authority, corporation or body constituted by the Central Government or any State Government under any law for the time being in force; or
- (b) such word or expression, as may be prescribed, unless the previous approval of the Central Government has been obtained for the use of any such word or expression.

Section 4(5)(ii) of the Companies Act, 2013 states that where after reservation of name, it is found that name was applied by furnishing wrong or incorrect information, then the reserved name shall be cancelled and the person making application shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to one lakh rupees.

Answer 1(c)

Utility of PAN

- This number is unique to each cardholder and helps identify the income tax payer.
- PAN enables the department to identify/ link all transactions of the PAN holder with the department. These transactions include tax payments, TDS/TCS credits, returns of income, specified transactions, correspondence etc, and so on.

- It facilitates easy retrieval of information of PAN holder and matching of various investments, borrowings and other business activities of PAN holder.
- It also serves as an identity proof for a large number of purposes e.g. sale or purchase, by any person, of shares of a company or sale or purchase of any immovable property.

Answer 1(d)

Composition Scheme under the GST Act, 2017

The composition levy is an alternative method of levy of tax designed for small taxpayers whose turnover is up to Rs. 1.5 Crores (Rs. 75 lakhs in case of few States). The objective of composition scheme is to bring simplicity and to reduce the compliance cost for the small taxpayers. Moreover, it is optional and the eligible person opting to pay tax under this scheme can pay tax at a prescribed percentage of his turnover every quarter, instead of paying tax at normal rate.

Composition Scheme is now made available to service providers as well, whose aggregate annual turnover does not exceed Rs.50 lakhs. Both exclusive service providers and mixed service providers of goods and services can opt for this scheme.

K advises R to opt for composition scheme as R is a small businessman starting his company afresh and normal GST registration can burdensome him with major compliances, which will not be in case of GST Composition Scheme.

Answer 1(e)

A Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) engaged in the business of loans and advances, acquisition of shares/stocks/bonds/debentures/securities issued by Government or local authority or other marketable securities of a like nature, leasing, hire-purchase, insurance business, chit business etc. The privileges available to the NBFC are listed below:

1. Competitive Interest Rates

Rate of interest is one of the main aspects of all types of loans. NBFC are having interest rates either equal to bank lending rates or at times even lower to bank rates.

2. Quick processing

At banks, it is very important that the applicant should fulfil the eligibility criteria but NBFC are lenient in this aspect. This makes loan approval easier, smother process and quicker.

3. Less Rules and Regulations

As NBFC are incorporated under the Companies Act, (though regulated by the Reserve Bank of India), the rules and regulations for lending are not as stringent as banks. This helps borrowers to get loans easily.

4. Last Resort of Borrowing

NBFCs are the largest propellants of ushering finance into the country. They are the last resorts of borrowing. Further, Agility is a key feature for NBFCs as it sets the banks apart.

5. Caters Customer needs

Another major advantage of NBFCs is the ground level understanding of their customer's profile and the need for their credit, which gives them an edge, as their ability to customize their products according to client needs.

6. Loan available for Individuals with Poor Credit Rating

Loans will be offered to individuals with low credit score by NBFCs but most of the time the interest rates for such borrowers will be higher than market rates.

7. Broader customer base & enhance customer trust on NBFC ultimately increase brand value of the NBFC.

Question 2

Answer 2(a)

Eligibility to apply for Section 8 Company License

A person or an association of persons proposed to be registered under the Companies Act, 2013, as a limited company is eligible to be registered as Section 8 Company if it has below mentioned objectives and same should be upto the satisfaction of the Central Government:

- When the company intends to promote science, commerce, education, art, sports, research, religion, charity, social welfare, protection of the environment or alike other objectives;
- When the company intends to invest all the profits (if any) or any other income generated after incorporation in the promotion of such objects only;
- When the company does not intend to pay any dividend to its members;
- Any failure to meet the prescribed norms formulated by the Central Government may lead to the revocation of the licence of the Company on the orders of the Central Government.

As Aniket wishes to incorporate Section 8 company for the purpose of promotion of education, research and social welfare, he is advised to incorporate such section 8 company in compliance with the above stated eligibility criteria.

Answer 2 (b)

Benefits of Special Purpose Vehicle (SPV)

- (a) Ownership of Assets — An SPV allows the ownership of a single asset often by multiple parties and allows for ease of transfer between parties.
- (b) Minimum Statutory Requirement — Depending on the choice of jurisdiction, it is relatively cheap and easy to set up an SPV.
- (c) Clarity of documentation — It is easy to limit certain activities or to prohibit unauthorised transactions within the SPV documentation.
- (d) Tax benefits — SPVs are often used to make a transaction tax efficient by choosing the most favorable tax residence for the vehicle. SPVs are method of financial engineering schemes which have as their main goal, the avoidance of tax.
- (e) Legal protection — By structuring the SPV appropriately, the sponsor may limit legal liability in the event that the underlying project fails.
- (f) Accounting Reasons — Debts raised & losses incurred through SPV are not reflected in the balance sheet of the sponsor so it reflects a pleasant picture and enhances the debt raising ability of the sponsor.
- (g) Separation of Risk: The key advantage is that it helps in separating the risk and freeing up the capital. As a result, the SPV and the sponsoring company are protected against risks like insolvency, which may arise during the course of operation.
- (h) Securitization of assets: The SPV also allows securitization of assets without disturbing the managerial relationship. Under the arrangement, any predictable income stream generated by secured assets can be securitized.

- other relevant details as requested.

On submission of the application and review by the Chief Inspector, the shop or commercial establishment will be registered and a registration certificate will be issued to the occupier.

Answer 2(e)

This given case is similar to a decided case law i.e. Sozin Flora Pharma LLP vs. State of Himachal Pradesh & Another. The facts of the case are as follows:

In 2005, the petitioner was registered as a partnership firm in the name and style of M/S Sozin Flora Pharma, under the provisions of the Indian Partnership Act, 1932. In 2016 the firm was converted into LLP with the name M/S Sozin Flora Pharma LLP and the same was registered. However, the Department of State Revenue asked the LLP to pay stamp duty and registration charges for transferring the assets of the erstwhile partnership firm to the LLP. The petitioner [LLP] explained that upon conversion into LLP the vesting of property of the firm in the LLP is automatic and therefore it is not liable to pay stamp duty and registration charges. On behalf of the State, it was contended that the LLP is a separate distinct entity from that of its partners and hence the conversion amounts to change of legal rights.

The Hon'ble Court made reference to Section 58 of the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008 and held that the transfer and vestment of property of a partnership firm in favour of a converted LLP is statutory and is by Operation of law; the legal entity is not changed after conversion, only the identity of the petitioner firm as a legal entity undergoes a change and the order of the Revenue Department was quashed and set aside.

Hence, stamp duty and registration charges cannot be levied upon transferring the assets of the erstwhile partnership firm to LLP. Hence, the contention of the Department of State Revenue is not valid.

Note on Incubators as mode of financing

Incubators are organisations set-up with the specific goal of assisting entrepreneurs with building and launching their startups. Not only do incubators offer a high number of value added services (office space, utilities, admin & legal assistance, etc.), they often also make grants/ debt/ equity investments.

Atal Incubation Centres (AICs) is an initiative of the Atal Innovation Mission (AIM), NITI Aayog to foster innovation and entrepreneurial spirit while creating a supportive ecosystem for start-ups and entrepreneurs in India. Each AIC is supported with a grant of up to INR 10 crores over a period of 5 years. Since 2016, AIM has established 68 Atal Incubation Centres across 18 states and 3 UTs which have supported more than 2700 startups.

Incubators set-ups precede the seed funding stage and help the entrepreneur develop a business idea or make a prototype by providing resources and services in exchange for an equity stake. Incubators offer office space, administrative support, legal compliances, management training, mentoring and access to industry experts as well as to funding through angel investors or VCs.

The incubation period can be 2-3 years and admission is rigorous.

Answer 4(b)

Payments Banks (PBs) is a new model of banks conceptualised by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), these banks can accept a restricted deposit, which is currently limited to Rupees 1 lakh per individual customer and may be increased further. In order to expand the ability of payments banks to cater to the growing needs of their customers, the current limit on maximum end of day balance of Rs.1 lakh per individual customer was increased to Rs.2 lakh. They can pay interest on these deposits just like savings bank account. Both current account and savings accounts can be operated by such banks.

PBs comes under a differentiated bank licence since it cannot offer all the services that a commercial bank offers. In particular, a payments bank cannot lend.

The main objective of PBs is to widen the spread of payment and financial services to small business, low-income households, and migrant labour workforce in secured technology-driven environment. It can issue services like ATM cards, debit cards, net-banking, third party transfers and mobile-banking and offer remittance services. These banks cannot grant loans or issue Credit cards.

To open a bank account and the application process of PBs is made very easy as compared to other banks. These bank accounts can be opened instantly through their respective mobile apps just by providing details like Aadhar number with KYC verification. Most of the payment banks have a non-NBFC heritage and will use payment bank as a customer retention and acquisition mechanism.

The chit fund business is governed by Chit Funds Act, 1982 which is a Central Act administered by State Governments. The Chit Fund Companies registered under the Chit Fund Act can legally carry-on chit fund business. Chit Funds activity involves contributions by members in instalments by way of subscription to the Chit and by rotation each member of the Chit receives the chit amount.

As per section 45I (bb) of the RBI Act, any subscription to Chit is specifically excluded from the definition of deposit and cannot be termed as deposit. While Chit fund Companies registered with respective State Governments may collect subscription to Chit as above, they are prohibited by RBI from accepting deposits.

Chit Funds Act, 1982 provides that nothing in section 46 shall be deemed to affect the power of the Reserve Bank to inspect the books and records of any foreman under the provisions of section 45N of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934

The Reserve Bank may, if it considers necessary forward a copy of its report or of any part of its report on the inspection of the books and records of a foreman to the foreman for taking necessary action.

Question 5

Reena has joined as the Management Trainee in the Company Secretary department of PP Ltd. in the month of September, 2022. The Company is a listed company. Apart from passing CS Professional examination, Reena has also completed her MBA (Finance) from a reputed Management Institute. She is passionate to learn the compliances under the Companies Act, 2013, the SEBI Act, 1992 and other laws applicable to the company. On the request of Reena, the Company Secretary of the company advises Reena to meet Sanjeev, who is the senior partner of AB Solicitors, the legal consultants of the company, for understanding the compliances under the various laws.

On 10th July 2023, Reena visits the office of Sanjeev. During the discussion, Sanjeev highlights that in the CS department of PP Ltd., the male CS trainees are getting higher stipend as compared to the stipend of female CS trainees. Sanjeev explains her about the reforms proposed by Code on Social Security, 2020, which amends and consolidates the laws relating to social security with the goal to extend social security to all employees and workers either in the organised or unorganised or any other sectors or for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. He also mentions that in order to ensure security for all workers, the Central Government has subsumed nine Labour Laws into the Social Security Code to secure the rights of workers for insurance, pension, gratuity, maternity benefit etc. Further, the Government can fund the contribution of workers from disadvantaged section. He also informs that being a cotton textile unit, there are some restrictions for PP Ltd. on engagement of women and children near cotton openers, but the company is not following the prescribed rules.

After the meeting, Sanjeev advises Reena to come again to his office on the next day so that he may explain her about the pending legal cases. She returns back to the office of PP Ltd. and prepares a detailed report on equal pay for equal work and laws which are proposed to be merged in Social Security Code and restriction on employment of women and children. She sends the said report to the Managing Director of PP Ltd. through email with a copy to the senior partner of the legal consultants of the company.

As per the advice of Sanjeev, Reena visits the office of AB Solicitors, legal consultants, again on 11th July 2023. On reaching the office of legal consultants, she is informed that Sanjeev is on leave for the day due to urgent personal work. Mukesh, who is the junior partner in the legal consultancy firm, tells her that he is preparing replies in respect of various legal cases of the company and she should also learn how to prepare such replies. Reena being excited to learn new things enters into the chamber of Mukesh. Mukesh tells Reena that he may provide very useful case studies to her for her learning and starts making physical contact and advances with her. Being aggrieved by the behaviour of Mukesh, Reena returns to the office of PP Ltd. and makes a complaint before the internal complaints committee of the company for sexual harassment. Reena wants that her identity, address and contents of her complaint should not be published, communicated or made known to the public. In view of the above, answer the following :

- (a) In the light of a decided case law, examine whether PP Ltd. is violating the rule of Equal Pay for Equal Work ?
- (b) What are the nine Labour Laws that have been subsumed by the Social Security Code by the Central Government ?
- (c) Examine whether PP Ltd. is contravening the provisions of law regarding prohibition of employment of women and children near cotton openers ?

Answer 5 (a)

Article 39 of the Constitution of India requires the state, in particular, to direct its policy towards securing:

- a) that all citizens, irrespective of sex, equally have the right to an adequate means of livelihood;
- b) that the ownership and control of the material resources of the community are so distributed as best to sub serve the common good;
- c) that the operation of the economic system does not result in the concentration of wealth and means of production to the common detriment;
- d) that there is equal work for both men and women;
- e) that the health and strength of workers, men and women, and tender age of children are not abused and that citizens are not forced by economic necessity to enter avocations unsuited to their age or strength;
- f) that children are given opportunities and facilities to develop in a healthy manner and in conditions of freedom and dignity and that childhood and youth are protected against exploitation and against moral and material abandonment.

In the case of Randhir Singh v. Union of India (1982 AIR 879) the Supreme Court has held that the principle of "Equal pay for equal work though not a fundamental right" is certainly a constitutional goal. Article 39 (d) of the Constitution proclaims "equal pay for equal work for both men and women" as a Directive Principle of State Policy. The doctrine of equal pay for equal work is equally applicable to persons employed on a daily wage basis. They are also entitled to the same wages as other permanent employees in the department employed to do the identical work.

Accordingly, PP Ltd. is violating the rule of Equal Pay for Equal Work.

Answer 5 (b)

The Central Government has subsumed following 9 Labour Laws into the Social Security Code:

- (1) The Employees Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952;
- (2) The Employees State Insurance Act, 1948;
- (3) The Employees Compensation Act, 1923;
- (4) The Employment Exchanges (Compulsory Notification of Vacancies) Act, 1959;
- (5) The Maternity Benefit Act, 1961;
- (6) The Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972;
- (7) The Cine-workers Welfare Fund Act, 1981;
- (8) The Building and Other Construction Workers' Welfare Cess Act, 1996; and
- (9) The Unorganised Workers Social Security Act, 2008.

Answer 5 (c)

Prohibition of employment of women and children near cotton-openers

Section 27 of the Factories Act, 1948, states that no woman or child shall be employed in any part of a factory for pressing cotton in which a cotton opener is at work. It is provided that if the feed-end of a cotton-opener is in a room separated from the delivery end by a partition extending to the roof or to such height as the Inspector may in any particular case specify in writing, women and children may be employed on the side of the partition where the feed-end is situated.

Accordingly, PP Ltd. is contravening the provisions of law regarding prohibition of employment of women and children near cotton openers.

Answer 5 (d)

Prohibition of publication or making known contents of complaint and inquiry proceedings

According to Section 16 of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, the contents of the complaint made under section 9, the identity and addresses of the aggrieved woman, respondent and witnesses, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, recommendations of the Internal Committee or the Local Committee, as the case may be, and the action taken by the employer or the District Officer under the provisions of this Act shall not be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media in any manner.

It is provided that information may be disseminated regarding the justice secured to any victim of sexual harassment under this Act without disclosing the name, address, identity or any other particulars calculated to lead to the identification of the aggrieved woman and witnesses.

(5 marks each)

Answer 6 (a)

According to Section 4(1) of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, gratuity shall be payable to an employee on the termination of his employment after he has rendered continuous service for not less than five years:

- (a) on his superannuation, or
 (b) on his retirement or resignation, or
 (c) on his death or disablement due to accident or disease.

The completion of continuous service of five years is not necessary where the termination of the employment of any employee is due to death or disablement. Further, the period of continuous service is to be reckoned from the date of employment and not from the date of commencement of this Act.

For the purposes of this section, disablement means such disablement as incapacitates an employee for the work which he was capable of performing before the accident or disease resulting in such disablement.

Mere absence from duty without leave cannot be said to result in breach of continuity of service for the purpose of this Act. [Kothari Industrial Corporation v. Appellate Authority, 1998]

In view of aforesaid provisions of Act, Arun is entitled for the gratuity payment from the owner of the factory and the decision of owner in non-payment of gratuity is not correct.

Answer 6(b)

As per the Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986, Adolescent means a person who has completed his fourteenth year of age but has not completed his eighteenth year.

Hours and Period of Work

Section 7 of the Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986 provides that no adolescent shall be required or permitted to work in any establishment in excess of such number of hours, as may be prescribed for such establishment or class of establishments.

The period of work on each day shall be so fixed that no period shall exceed three hours and that no adolescent shall work for more than three hours before he has had an interval for rest for at least one hour. The period of work of a child shall be so arranged that inclusive of his interval for rest, it shall not be spread over more than six hours, including the time spent in waiting for work on any day.

This section also stipulates that:

- No adolescent shall be permitted or required to work between 7 p.m. and 8 a.m.
- No adolescent shall be required or permitted to work overtime.
- No adolescent shall be required or permitted to work in, any establishment on any day on which he has already been working in another establishment.

Answer 6(c)

Payment of Subsistence Allowance

Statutory provision for payment of subsistence allowance has been made under Section 10A of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946, provides as follows:

Where any workman is suspended by the employer pending investigation or inquiry into complaints or charges of misconduct against him, the employer shall pay to such a workman the subsistence allowance

- (a) at the rate of fifty per cent of the wages which the workman was entitled to immediately preceding the date of such suspension, for the first ninety days of suspension: and
- (b) at the rate of seventy-five per cent of such wages for the remaining period of suspension if the delay in the completion of disciplinary proceedings against such workman is not directly attributable to the conduct of such workman.

Any dispute regarding subsistence allowance may be referred by the workman or the employer, to the Labour Court constituted under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

However, if the provisions relating to payment of subsistence allowance under any other law for the time being in force are more beneficial, then the provisions of such other law shall be applicable.

Answer 6 (d)

Answer 6A(i)

Specific responsibility of the occupier in relation to hazardous processes

Section 41C of the Factories Act, 1948, states that every occupier of a factory involving any hazardous process shall maintain accurate and up-to-date health records or, as the case may be, medical records, of the workers in the factory who are exposed to any chemical, toxic or any other harmful substances which are manufactured, stored, handled or transported and such records shall be accessible to the workers subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

Such occupier shall appoint persons who possess qualifications and experience in handling hazardous substances and are competent to supervise such handling within the factory and to provide at the working place all the necessary facilities for protecting the workers in the manner prescribed. It is provided that where any question arises as to the qualifications and experience of a person so appointed, the decision of the Chief Inspector shall be final.

Such occupier shall provide for medical examination of every worker-

- I. before such worker is assigned to a job involving the handling of, or working with, a hazardous substance, and
- II. while continuing in such job, and after he has ceased to work in such job, at intervals not exceeding twelve months in such manner as may be prescribed.

Answer 6A(ii)

Under Section 46 of the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 Act, the insured persons or their dependents are entitled to the following benefits on prescribed scale:

- (a) periodical payments in case of sickness certified by medical practitioner;
- (b) periodical payments to an insured workman in case of confinement or miscarriage or sickness arising out of pregnancy, confinement;
- (c) periodical payment to an insured person suffering from disablement as a result of employment injury;
- (d) periodical payment to dependents of insured person;
- (e) medical treatment and attendance on insured person;
- (f) payment of funeral expenses on the death of insured person at the prescribed rate.

Answer 6A(iii)

Difference between lay-off and lock-out under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947

- (1) Lay-off means the failure, refusal or inability of an employer on account of shortage of coal, power or raw materials or the accumulation of stocks or the break-down of machinery or natural calamity or for any other connected reason to give employment to a workman whose name is borne on the muster rolls of his industrial establishment and who has not been retrenched.

While Lock-out refers to the temporary closing of a place of employment, or the suspension of work, or the refusal by an employer to continue to employ any number of persons employed by him. It is a situation in which an employer prevents employees from working by refusing to allow them to enter the workplace. It is caused by a labor dispute between the employer and the employees.

- (2) In lay-off, the business continues, but in lock-out, the place of business is closed down for the time being. In a lock-out, there is no question of any wages or compensation being paid unless the lock-out is held to be unjustified.
- (3) Lay-off is the result of trade reasons but lock-out is a weapon of collective bargaining.
- (4) Lock-out is subject to certain restrictions and penalties but it is not so in case of lay-off.

However, both are of temporary nature and in both cases the contract of employment is not terminated but remains in suspended animation.

Answer 6A (iv)

Section 32 of the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 provides that the Act shall not apply to the following classes of employees:

- (i) employees employed by any insurer carrying on general insurance business and the employees employed by the Life Insurance Corporation of India;

Working Notes:

(1) Calculation of Calls in Arrears:

(i)	On Mr. X's Shares: Amount due on call= 300x21	=	Rs. 6300
	Amount Adjusted through Application and Allotment Money
	(80000x300/60000)- 300 or (400-300) x Rs.24		Rs. 2400
	Call in Arrears		Rs. 3900
(ii)	On Mr. Y's Shares: Amount due on call= 200x21	=	Rs. 4200
	Amount Adjusted through Application and Allotment Money
	(20000x300/60000) x Rs.24		Rs. 2400
	Call in Arrears		Rs. 1800
	Total Calls in arrears = 3900 +1800 = Rs. 5700

(2) Amount Received on Call = (100000 x Rs.21) – 960000 (Excess of Application Money 40000 x 24) – 5700 (Calls in Arrears) = Rs. 11,34,300.

Working Notes:

(1) Calculation of Calls in Arrears:

- (i) On Mr. X's Shares: Amount due on call= $300 \times 21 = \text{Rs. } 6300$
Amount Adjusted through Application and Allotment Money
 $(80000 \times 300 / 60000) - 300$ or $(400 - 300) \times \text{Rs. } 24 = \text{Rs. } 2400$
Call in Arrears = $6300 - 2400 = \text{Rs. } 3900$
- (ii) On Mr. Y's Shares: Amount due on call= $200 \times 21 = \text{Rs. } 4200$
Amount Adjusted through Application and Allotment Money
 $(20000 \times 300 / 60000) \times \text{Rs. } 24 = \text{Rs. } 2400$
Call in Arrears = $4200 - 2400 = \text{Rs. } 1800$
Total Calls in arrears = $3900 + 1800 = \text{Rs. } 5700$

- (2) Amount Received on Call = $(100000 \times \text{Rs. } 21) - 960000$ (Excess of Application Money $40000 \times 24) - 5700$ (Calls in Arrears) = $\text{Rs. } 11,34,300$.

Answer 1 (c)

As per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, amount of premium received on issue of shares is a capital receipt and is to be transferred to a separate account called "Securities Premium Account". According to the Companies Act, 2013, "Securities Premium Account" can be used only for the following purposes:

1. Towards the issue of unissued shares to the members of the company as fully paid bonus shares.
2. In writing-off the preliminary expenses of the company.
3. In writing-off the expenses of or the commission paid or discount allowed on any issue of shares or debentures of the company.
4. In providing for any premium payable on redemption of any redeemable preference shares or any debentures of the company, or
5. For purchase of its own shares or other securities u/s 68.

If the company contravenes the above provisions and utilizes the amount of securities premium except for the modes specified above, it will attract the provisions relating to reduction of share capital of a company u/s 66 of the Companies Act, 2013.

Ratios
(i) Current Ratio = Current Assets / Current Liabilities	$(16.64+15.43+1.75)/11.25$ = 3.006 times (3.01 times) Or 3.01:1
(ii) Liquidity Ratio = Liquid Assets*/Current Liabilities * Current Assets excluding Inventory	$(15.43+ 1.75)/11.25$ = 1.527 times (1.53 times) Or 1.53:1
(iii) Gross Profit Margin = Gross Profit/Net Sales * 100	$33.98 /144* 100$ = 23.60%
(iv) Net Profit Margin = Net Profit after Tax / Net Sales * 100	$15.78/144* 100$ = 10.96%

(v) Return on Equity = Earning for Equity /Average Equity 100 (In place of Average Equity, Closing Equity may be used)	15.78/33.36 100 = 47.30% 33.36 = (27 + 6.36)

	Preference shareholder's A/c Dr. To Bank A/c (Payment made to preference shareholders to redeem all the preference shares at a premium of 5%)		5,25,000	5,25,000

Working Note:

Divisible profits available = Rs 1,60,000 + 1,18,540 = Rs. 2,78,540

Face value of the Preference share to be redeemed = Rs. 5,00,000

Minimum amount of new issue = Rs. 5,00,000 - Rs. 2,78,540 = Rs 2,21,460

Securities premium to be received = 10% of Rs. 2,21,460 = Rs. 22,146.

Total securities premium Rs. 14,000 + Rs 22,146 = 36,146

Premium payable on redemption of preference shares Rs. $\frac{5}{100} \times 5,00,000 =$ Rs. 25,000

As the total share premium after new issue would be sufficient to take care of the premium Payable on redemption of preference shares, the company can proceed to redeem the preference shares by issuing 22,146 new equity shares of rupees 10 each.

Answer 4(a)

Calculation of share of H Ltd. in profits of S Ltd. on the dates of acquisition of shares.

On 01.04.2022

Reserves and Surplus: Rs. 1,25,000

Shares acquired by H Ltd. on 01.04.22 = $20000 \times \frac{25}{100}$ = 5,000 shares

Proportionate holding of H Ltd. in S Ltd. = $\frac{5000}{25000} \times 100$ = 20%

Share of H Ltd. in profit on 01.04.22 = $1,25,000 \times \frac{20}{100}$ = 25,000

On 01.10.2022

Reserves and Surplus on 01.04.22: = Rs. 1,25,000

Profit earned during 2022-23: Rs. 50,000

Proportionate profit up to 0.1.10.22 (6 months) = $50,000 \times \frac{6}{12}$ = Rs. 25,000

= Rs. 1,50,000

Profit for distribution

Shares freshly acquired by H Ltd.: $20,000 * 37.5/100$	= 7500 shares
Proportion of freshly acquired share in S Ltd. = $7,500/25,000 * 100$	= 30%
Total share acquired by H Ltd. in S Ltd = $20\%+30\%$	= 50%
Share of H Ltd. in profit on 1/10/2022= $150000*50\%$	= Rs. 75000

On 01.01.2023

Reserves and Surplus on 01.04.2022	= Rs. 1,25,000
Profit earned during 2022-23	= Rs. 50,000
Proportionate profit up to 01.01.23 (9 months) = $50,000 * 9/12$	Rs. 37,500
	Rs. 1,62,500

Profit for distribution

Shares freshly acquired by H Ltd.: $20,000 * 37.5/100$	= 7500 shares
Proportion of freshly acquired share in S Ltd. = $7,500 / 25,000 * 100$	= 30%
Total Share of H Ltd. in S Ltd. on 1/1/23= $50\%+30\%$	= 80%
Share of H Ltd. in profits on 1/1/23 = $162500*80\%$	= 130000

Answer 4(b)

(i) Calculation of Goodwill:

Cost of Investment in shares:	Rs. 7,00,000
Less: Value of H Ltd.'s equity on date of acquisition:	(Rs. 4,20,000)
Value of Goodwill	Rs. 2,80,000
Calculation of Value of H Ltd.'s equity on date of acquisition:
Proportionate holding of H Ltd. in S Ltd. = $3000/4000 * 100$	= 75%
Face Value of shares = $3000 * 100$	= 3,00,000
Share in pre-acquisition profit = $1,00,000 * 75/100$	= 75,000
Share in pre-acquisition reserves = $60,000 * 75/100$	= 45,000
	Rs. 4,20,000

(ii) Calculation of Minority Interest

Nominal Value of Equity Shares held by Minority Shareholders = $1000 * 100$	= 100000
Add: Share in pre-acquisition profits and reserves $(100000+60000) * 25 / 100$	= 40000
Add: Share in post-acquisition profits $(400000-160000) * 25 / 100$	= 60000
	= Rs. 200000

Answer 4A(i)

The three golden rules of accounting are the very foundation of double entry system of financial accounting. This statement underlines the pivotal role played by golden rules of accounting in double-entry accounting process. Double Entry System of accounting actually classifies all the accounts opened in books under three broad categories, which are as follows:

1. Personal Accounts: Accounts of Natural, Artificial and Representative Persons
2. Real Accounts: Accounts of Things and Properties, and

The above factures highlight the need for convergence as well. Each county has its own set of rules and regulations for accounting and financial reporting Translation and re-instatement are of utmost importance in the world that is rapidly globalizing in all ways. Further, international analyst and investors would like to compare financial statements based on similar accounting standards and this has led to the growing support for internationally accepted set of accounting standards for cross border fillings. The harmonizing of financial reporting around the world would also help to raise the confidence of investors generally in the information they are using to make their decisions and assess their risks.

A strong need has been felt by legislation to bring about uniformity, rationalization, comparability transparency and adaptability in financial statement across the globe. Having a multiplicity of accounting standard around the world is against the public interest. If accounting for the same events and information produces different reported numbers depending on the system of standards that are being used, it is self-evident that accounting will be increasingly discredited in the eyes of those using the numbers. It creates confusion, encourages error and facilitates fraud and the cure for these is to have single set of global standards of the highest quality set in the interest of public.

Question 5

XYZ Ltd. is a company manufacturing standardized chandeliers. The segment they deal in is more or less an oligopolistic kind of market with mediocre market potential. The demand of their product had been wavering in past, but owing to increasing economic level of middle class in India, the board of directors is confident of brighter days in future. On 1st April, 2023, the board of directors of the company is desirous of knowing the amount of working capital that will be required to meet the planned level of operations during the year 2023-24. Following details have been provided in this regard :

Issued share capital :	₹ 2 Crore
10% Debentures	₹ 50 Lakh
Fixed Assets (1st April, 2023)	₹ 1.25 Crore

Production and sales during the year 2023-24 is expected to average out to 500 units per month. During the previous year, the ratios of cost to selling price, which are also likely to be maintained in current year as well, were as follows :

Raw Materials :	60%
Direct Wages	10%
Overheads :	20%

Following additional information has been provided in this regard :

- (1) Raw materials and components are expected to remain in store for an average period of two months before being issued to assembly and production.*
- (2) Each unit of product is expected to be in process for 15 days.*
- (3) Finished goods stay in warehouse for an average period of 1 month before being dispatches to customers.*
- (4) Suppliers of raw material components extend an average credit of 1.5 month.*
- (5) 80% sales are credit and though credit extended to customers is two months, average credit collection period is 75 days.*
- (6) On an average, overheads of 2 weeks remain outstanding.*

- (7) Selling price per unit is ₹ 5,000.
- (8) Work-in-progress, cost involves 100% of material and 50% of labour and overheads.
- (9) Sundry debtors to be valued at cash cost. Entire overhead cost is assumed to be cash cost. (10) One year is equal to 360 days or 52 weeks.
- (11) Assuming production and sales follow a constant pattern. You are required to :
- (a) Prepare an estimate of working capital required by the company for the ensuing year. Add 10% of your calculated figure for contingencies. (10 marks)
- (b) Prepare a forecast of Profit/Loss account for the ensuing year. (5 marks)
- (c) Prepare a forecasted Balance Sheet at the end of ensuing year. (5 marks)

Answer 5(a)

Answer 6(a)

Statement of Marginal Cost

Direct Material	20,000
Direct Wages	16,000
Prime Cost	36,000
Variable Factory Overhead (25% of wages)	4,000
Marginal Factory Cost	40,000
Variable Administrative Overhead (10% of 40,000)	4,000
Marginal Cost of Production	44,000
Variable Selling & Distribution Overhead (1,000 x 4)	4,000
Total Marginal Cost	48,000
Sales (1,000x64)	64,000

Calculation of Ratio

- (i) $P/V \text{ Ratio} = \frac{S-V}{S} \times 100 = \frac{64,000-48,000}{64,000} = 25\%$
 (ii) $B.E.P. = \frac{\text{Fixed Costs}}{P/V \text{ Ratio}} = \frac{8,000}{25\%} = \text{Rs } 32,000$
 (iii) $\text{Margin of Safety} = \text{Sales} - B.E.P. = 64,000 - 32,000 = \text{Rs } 32,000$
 (iv) $\text{Profit} = (S \times P/V) - F = (64,000 \times 25\%) - 8,000 = \text{Rs } 8,000$

Answer 6(b)

Equipment A :

$$\begin{aligned} NPV &= 20,000 \times (PVA_{F6, 0.11}) - 75,000 \\ &= 20,000 \times 4.231 - 75,000 \\ &= 84,620 - 75,000 \\ &= \text{Rs. } 9,620 \end{aligned}$$

$$\text{Profitability Index} = \frac{\text{Present Value of Cash Inflows}}{\text{Initial Cost}} = \frac{84,620}{75,000} = 1.128$$

Equipment B:

$$\begin{aligned} NPV &= 14,000 \times PVA_{F6, 0.11} - 50,000 \\ &= 14,000 \times 4.231 - 50,000 \\ &= 59,234 - 50,000 \\ &= \text{Rs } 9,234 \end{aligned}$$

$$\text{Profitability Index} = \frac{\text{Present Value of Cash Inflows}}{\text{Initial Cost}}$$

$$\frac{59,234}{50,000} = 1.185$$

As per NPV project A is to be preferred over project B. But as per PI technique Project B is to be preferred. The NPV decision should be preferred unless there is a capital rationing. If the firm has funds of Rs. 75,000 to invest, then project A should be adopted. This will result in increase in shareholders wealth to the extent of Rs. 9,620 against project B which will increase the wealth only by Rs. 9,234.

Answer 6(c)

i) Calculation of earnings per share:

$$\text{Earnings per share (EPS)} = \frac{\text{Profit after tax}}{\text{No. of equity shares}}$$

$$5040000/2000000 = \text{Rs. } 2.52$$

ii) Computation of Percentage Cost of Capital:

(a) Cost of Equity Capital = Cost of Equity (Ke) = D / MP

$$\text{Ke (\%)} = 2.52/12 \times 100 = 21\%$$

(b) Cost of Debenture Funds:	At Book Value (Rs in lakh)	At Market Price (Rs in lakh)
Value of 15% Debentures	220.00	206.25
Interest Cost for the year	33.00	33.00
Less: Tax at 30%	9.90	9.90
Interest cost after tax	23.10	23.10
Cost of Debenture Fund (%)	23.10/220 × 100	23.10/206.25 × 100
	=10.50%	=11.20%

Answer 6(d)

Cost of Equity (Ke) 12% ; Number of shares in the beginning (n) 10,000 Current Market Price (P0) Rs.100 ; Net Profit (E) Rs. 5, 00,000

Expected Dividend Rs.10 per share Investment (I) Rs.10, 00,000

Computation of market price per share, when:

(i) No dividend is declared:

$$P_0 = P_1 + D / 1 + K_e$$

$$100 = P_1 + 0 / 1 + 0.12$$

$$P_1 = 112 - 0 = \text{Rs } 112$$

(ii) Dividend is declared:

$$100 = P_1 + 10 / 1 + 0.12$$

$$P_1 = 112 - 10 = \text{Rs. } 102$$

(iii) Calculation of funds required for investment: Using MM model Earning 5, 00,000

Dividend distributed 1, 00,000

Fund available for investment 4, 00,000

Total Investment 10, 00,000

Balance Funds required 10, 00,000 - 4, 00,000 = Rs. 6, 00,000 No. of shares — Funds required/ Price at end (P1)

$$\Delta n = 6, 00,000 / 102 = 5882.35 \text{ or } 5883 \text{ Shares.}$$

Answer 6A(i)Aroon Indicator:

The Aroon indicator is a technical indicator that is used to identify trend changes in the price of an asset, as well as the strength of that trend. In essence, the indicator measures the time between highs and the time between lows over a time period. The idea is that strong uptrends will regularly see new highs, and strong downtrends will regularly see new lows. The indicator signals when this is happening, and when it isn't.

The indicator consists of the "Aroon up" line, which measures the strength of the uptrend, and the "Aroon down" line, which measures the strength of the downtrend. The Aroon indicator was developed by Tushar Chande in 1995.

Formulas of the Aroon Indicator:

Aroon up = 25-Period Since 25 period High / 25 * 100

Aroon down = 25-Period Since 25 period low / 25 * 100

Answer 6A(ii)

The Hamada equation is the method of analyzing a firm's cost of capital as it uses additional financial leverage. It draws upon the Modigliani-Miller theorem on capital structure. The higher the beta equation, the higher the risk associated with the firm.

$$\beta_L = \beta_U [1 + (1 - t) (D/E)]$$

$$= 0.80 [1 + (1 - .35) (.65)]$$

1.138, Hence, the leveraged beta is 1.138.

It means that the financial leverage of the company increases the overall risk by the beta amount of 0.338 = (1.138 - .80). Therefore, as the beta of the coefficient rises, the associated risk of having higher debt also rises.

Answer 6A(iii)Annuity Due vs. Ordinary Annuity

1. Payments: The major difference between annuity due and the more popular ordinary annuity is that payments for an ordinary annuity are made at the end of the period, as opposed to annuity due payments made at the start of each period/interval. Ordinary annuity payments include loan repayments, mortgage payments, bond interest payments, and dividend payments.
2. Present value: Another difference is that the present value of an annuity due is higher than one for an ordinary annuity. It is a result of the time value of money principle, as annuity due payments are received earlier.

Hence, if you are set to make ordinary annuity payments, you will benefit from getting an ordinary annuity by holding onto your money longer (for the interval). Conversely, if you are set to receive annuity due payments, you will benefit, as you will be able to receive your money (value) sooner. In any annuity due, each payment is discounted one less period in contrast to a similar ordinary annuity.
