QNO 3420.100	Significance of Pro Forma Financial Information TITANIUM CNO -- 3420.020	New Course -- (SM23)
Answer	Discuss the significance of Pro forma financial information included in prospectus of a company What is Pro forma financial information? Definition of Pro Forma Financial Information: Pro forma financial information refers to financial information shown together with adjustments to illustrate the impact of an event or transaction on unadjusted financial information as if the event had occurred or the transaction had been undertaken at an earlier date selected for purposes of the illustration. Usage in Offer Documents: The Pro forma financial information is, normally, used in the offer documents to demonstrate the effect of a transaction on the financial statements of a company as if those transactions had occurred at an earlier date. Pro Forma B/S and P&L: The Pro forma financial information may take the form of Statement of Profit and Loss and Balance Sheet to illustrate how the transactions might have affected the assets, liabilities and earnings of the Issuer. They also include notes in relation to the significant aspects of the transactions, assumptions used to prepare the Pro forma financial information and the adjustments made. Purpose: The purpose of pro forma financial information included in a prospectus is solely to illustrate the impact of a significant event or transaction on unadjusted financial information of the entity as if the event had occurred or the transaction had been undertaken at an earlier date selected for purposes of the illustration. Not actual Financial Position or performance: Pro forma financial information does not represent the entity's actual financial position, financial performance, or cash flows.

Answer	The management of S Ltd. requests you to accept an engagement to report on the compilation of pro forma financial information to be included in a prospectus. In light of SAE 3420, what factors you will consider regarding the company acknowledging and understanding its responsibility in this matter before accepting engagement? The company's responsibility has to be acknowledged for the following matters:- (i) Adequately disclosing and describing the applicable criteria to the intended users if these are not publicly available. (ii) Compiling the pro forma financial information on the basis of the applicable criteria and (iii) Providing the practitioner with:- a. Access to all information (including, when needed for purposes of the engagement, information of the acquiree(s) in a business combination), such as records, documentation and other material, relevant to evaluating whether the pro forma financial information has been compiled, in all material respects, on the basis of the applicable criteria b. Additional information that the practitioner may request from the responsible party for the purpose of the engagement. c. Access to those within the entity and the entity's advisors from whom the practitioner determines it necessary to obtain evidence relating to evaluating whether the pro forma financial information has been compiled, in all material respects, on the basis of the applicable criteria; and d. When needed for purposes of the engagement, access to appropriate individuals within the acquiree(s) in a business combination.

QNO 3420.300	Pro forma adjustment TITANIUM CNO -- Unique 3420.120	New Course -- (SM23)
Answer	Discuss the term "Pro forma adjustment" under SAE 3420 Pro forma adjustments - In relation to unadjusted financial information, these include (i) Adjustments to unadjusted financial information that illustrate the impact of a significant event or transaction ("event" or "transaction") as if the event had occurred or the transaction had been undertaken at an earlier date selected for purposes of the illustration; and (ii) Adjustments to unadjusted financial information that are necessary for the pro forma financial information to be compiled on a basis consistent with the applicable financial reporting framework of the reporting entity ("entity") and its accounting policies under that framework. Pro forma adjustments include the relevant financial information of a business that has been, or is to be, acquired ("acquiree"), or a business that has been, or is to be, divested ("divestee"), to the extent that such information is used in compiling the pro forma financial information ("acquiree or divestee financial information").
