Documents

2. PRESUMPTION AS TO DOCUMENTS IN CERTAIN CASES [SECTION 144]

Presumption generally means 'an act of accepting that something is true until it is proved not true'. Section 144 lays down presumptions that are taken cognizance of by the Court when certain documents (given below in the diagram) are submitted as evidence by the prosecution in a proceeding under the GST law against any person.

As per the Evidence Act, 1872, the contents of a document must be proved by evidence and signature or handwriting of a person on the document must be proved to be of the person of whom it is alleged to be. Further, a document which is required by law to be attested shall not be used as evidence until at least one attesting witness has been called for the purpose of proving its execution, except in certain cases.

Section 144 enables the court of law to make departure from the above general principles, in respect of the documents given in the diagram above, and presume:

- truth of the contents of the document

- ❑ that the signature which purports to be in the handwriting of any particular person is in that person's handwriting
- ❑ execution or attestation in the document has been made by the person by whom it purports to have been so executed or attested

This implies that in case of such documents, if the said person claims that the document is not true or not signed or handwritten by him or not attested or executed by him, the burden of proof in respect of the same shall lie on him.

Further, the Stamp Act, 1899 provides that a document which is not duly stamped shall be inadmissible in evidence. However, section 144 allows the Court to depart from such general provision by providing that a document shall be admissible in evidence even if it is not duly stamped.

3. ADMISSIBILITY OF MICRO FILMS, FACSIMILE COPIES OF DOCUMENTS AND COMPUTER PRINTOUTS AS DOCUMENTS AND AS EVIDENCE [SECTION 145]

'Document' has been defined in section 2(41) of the CGST Act to include written or printed record of any sort and electronic record as defined in the Information Technology Act, 2000.

Deemed documents

As per section 145(1), the following shall be deemed as 'documents':

- ❑ A micro film of a document or the reproduction of the image(s) embodied in such micro film, whether enlarged or not;

Microfilms are films containing microphotographs of a document. Such images are generally provided as negatives.

❑ A facsimile copy of a document;

A facsimile is a copy or reproduction of a document that is as true to the original source as possible. An exact copy of a document is a facsimile.

❑ A statement contained in a document and included in a printed material produced by a computer;

❑ Information stored electronically in any device or media, including any hard copies made of such information.

It refers to the information stored in digital form, which requires the use of computer hardware and software. Also, such information is normally created and altered in the digital form. This category would include the information stored in ERP systems that are employed by most businesses presently. It also includes printouts of such digital information.

Such documents shall be admissible in any proceedings under the Act, without further proof or production of the original, as evidence of any contents of the original or of any fact stated therein of which direct evidence would be admissible.

Certification

As per section 145(2), a certificate,—

- (a) identifying the document containing the statement and describing the manner in which it was produced;
- (b) giving such particulars of any device involved in the production of that document as may be appropriate for the purpose of showing that the document was produced by a computer, shall constitute evidence of any matter stated in the certificate.

It may be noted that it shall be sufficient for a matter to be stated to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person stating it.

Furnishing, Collection and Publication of Information

4. POWER TO CALL FOR INFORMATION & BAR ON DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION [SECTIONS 151 & 152]

- ❑ Information may be sought relating to any matter dealt with in connection with this Act, within such time, in such form, and in such manner, as may be specified therein.

Bar on disclosure of information [Section 152]

- ❑ No information with respect to any matter given for the purposes of sections 150 or 151 shall, without the previous consent in writing of the concerned person or his authorised representative, be published in such manner as to enable any particulars to be identified as referring to a particular person without giving an opportunity of being heard to the person concerned.
- ❑ No such information shall be used for the purpose of any proceedings under the Act without giving an opportunity of being heard to the person concerned.

Exception reporting

No restriction shall apply to the publication of any information relating to a class of taxable persons or class of transactions, if in the opinion of the Commissioner, it is desirable in the public interest, to publish such information.

5. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION BY A PUBLIC SERVANT [SECTION 158]

Section 158 lays down the provisions for disclosure of information by a public servant as also maintaining the confidentiality of the same and related penal provisions in the event of contravention of the same.

It states that Court shall not require any GST officer to produce before it or to give evidence before it in respect of the particulars referred to in section 158(1). However, this restriction will not apply in respect of disclosures mentioned under sub-section (3).

- ❑ There shall be no impact on the liability to pay tax on the relevant supply or as per the relevant return.
- ❑ This section overrides the following sections:-

Section No.
133	Liability of officers and certain other persons
152	Bar on disclosure of information
158	Disclosure of information by a public servant

The said provision is implemented by rule 163 which provides that where a registered person opts to share the information furnished in—

- (a) application for registration in Form GST REG-01 as amended from time to time;
- (b) return in Form GSTR-3B for certain tax periods;

“Public Tech Platform for Frictionless Credit” means an enterprise-grade open architecture information technology platform, conceptualised by the Reserve Bank of India as part of its “Statement on Developmental and Regulatory Policies” dated the 10th August, 2023 and developed by its wholly owned subsidiary, Reserve Bank Innovation Hub, for the operations of a large ecosystem of credit, to ensure access of information from various data sources digitally and where the financial service providers and multiple data service providers converge on the platform using standard and protocol driven architecture, open and shared Application Programming Interface (API) framework.

This provision can be helpful in many cases as follows –

- (a) where the recipient of goods or services wants to confirm whether supplier of goods or services has filed returns and has paid the tax. This is because if the supplier does not pay tax, recovery can be made from recipient. In such cases, after obtaining consent from supplier, the recipient can check whether supplier as filed returns and paid taxes, before releasing his payment. At present, there is no mechanism by which recipient can know whether supplier has paid the taxes and filed returns
- (b) This provision will also be helpful to buyer for vendor registration, rating of vendors and verifying credentials of vendors
- (c) Suppliers of goods and services can judge credit worthiness of recipient, before extending him credit.
- (d) Bankers can use this provision while making assessment of loan applications.

Amount contains part of a rupee consisting of paise, and such part is less than fifty paise	Ignore such part

Delegation of Powers

12. POWER OF GOVERNMENT TO MAKE RULES & REGULATIONS [SECTIONS 164 & 165]

Section 164 empowers the Government to make rules on the recommendations of the GST Council for carrying out the provisions of the Act.

The following are noteworthy in this regard:

- The Government may make rules for all or any of the matters which by the Act are required to be, or may be, prescribed or in respect of which provisions are to be or may be made by rules.
- The rules may also be issued with retrospective effect but not from a date earlier than the date on which the provisions of the Act have come into force.
- The rules may provide for a penalty not exceeding ₹ 10,000 for committing breach of any rule.

Section 165 empowers the Board to make regulations consistent with the Act and the rules made thereunder to carry out the provisions of the Act.

Thus, while the rule making power lies with the Government, the regulation making power has been delegated to the CBIC (Board).

The Central Government and the Board have been vested with the similar powers of making rules and regulations respectively under sections 22 & 23 of the IGST Act also.

13. LAYING OF RULES, REGULATIONS AND NOTIFICATIONS [SECTION 166]

Section 166 provides that the following delegated legislation under the Act shall be laid before each house of the Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of 30 days which may be comprised in one session, or in two or more successive sessions:

- every rule made by the Government
- every regulation made by the Board
- every notification issued by the Government

If both the Houses agree that

- any modification be made in the rule / regulation / notification; or
- rule or regulation or notification should not be made, the rule or regulation or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be. However, any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or regulation or notification.

Similar provisions relating to laying of rules, regulations and notification etc. have also been prescribed under section 24 of the IGST Act.

14. DELEGATION OF POWERS [SECTION 167]

Section 167 prescribes that the powers conferred on any authority/officer can also be exercised by another authority/officer, if the Commissioner so directs by way of notification, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification.

Many notifications have been issued under this provision to delegate powers to lower officers, officers of State Government (by Central Government) and officers of Central Government (by State Government).

15. POWER TO ISSUE INSTRUCTIONS OR DIRECTIONS [SECTION 168]

Section 168 empowers the Board (CBIC) to issue orders, instructions or directions to the CGST officers for the purpose of uniformity in the implementation of the Act.

All officers and all other persons employed in the implementation of the Act observe and follow such orders, instructions or directions.

The binding nature of such orders, instructions and directions has been a matter of debate and scrutiny. The general understanding that prevails now is that a circular is binding on the officers, but not on the assessee. However, in case such circular states something contrary to the law, the law shall prevail over the circular.

The meaning of Commissioner for the purposes of following provisions is Commissioner or Joint Secretary posted in the Board and such Commissioner or Joint Secretary shall exercise the powers specified in these said sections with the approval of the Board:

Section	Particulars
Section 2(91)	Meaning of 'proper officer'

16. POWER OF GOVERNMENT TO EXTEND TIME LIMIT IN SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES [SECTION 168A]

The Government is empowered to extend the time limits provided under the CGST Act in respect of actions which cannot be completed or complied with due to force majeure. Here, force majeure means war, epidemic, flood, drought, fire, cyclone, earthquake or any other calamity caused by nature affecting the implementations of provisions of the CGST Act. - Payment of Tax
- Furnishing of returns
- Computation and settlement of integrated tax
- Electronic way bill
- Other functions and prescribed purposes

CBIC has notified www.gst.gov.in as the GST common portal to carry out the above stated functions. However, the Common GST Electronic Portal for furnishing electronic way bill is www.ewaybillgst.gov.in. Further, Invoice Registration Portal (IRP) is the website for uploading/reporting of e-invoices by the notified persons for whom e-invoicing is mandatory.

19. SPECIAL PROCEDURE FOR CERTAIN PROCESSES [SECTION 148]

Section 148 is an enabling provision for prescribing special procedures for certain processes. The following are noteworthy in this regard:

- Such procedures shall be prescribed by way of a notification issued by the Government, on recommendations of the GST Council.
- The conditions and safeguards and the classes of registered persons to whom such procedures will be applicable shall be stated in the notification itself.
- The special procedures may be prescribed with regard to the following matters:
 - Registration

- Filing of returns
- Payment of tax
- Administration

Some notifications issued by the Government under this section are:

Notification No.	Description
Notification No. 66/2017 CT dated 15.11.2017	Seeks to exempt all taxpayers from payment of tax on advances received in case of supply of goods
Notification No. 04/2018 CT dated 25.01.2018	Seeks to provide special procedure with respect to payment of tax by registered person supplying service by way of construction against transfer of development rights and vice versa .

Note: The above list is illustrative and not exhaustive.

20. GOODS AND SERVICES TAX COMPLIANCE RATING [SECTION 149]

As per section 149, every registered person shall be assigned a compliance rating based on the record of compliance in respect of specified parameters. Such ratings shall not be permanent and will be revised from time to time. The ratings shall be intimated to the taxable person and will also be placed in the public domain.

A prospective client will be able to see the compliance ratings of suppliers and take a decision as to whether to deal with a particular supplier or not. This will create healthy competition amongst taxable persons.

21. POWER TO TAKE SAMPLES [SECTION 154]

Section 154 authorizes the Commissioner, or an officer authorized by him to take samples of goods from the possession of any taxable person, where he considers it necessary. Such officer shall provide a receipt for any samples so taken.

22. BURDEN OF PROOF [SECTION 155]

'Burden of proof' normally refers to the obligation to prove one's assertion. Section 155 lays down that where any person claims that he is eligible for input tax credit under this Act, the burden of proving such claim shall lie on such person.

Thus, where a presumption is raised that a person is not eligible for input tax credit then the onus shall be on such person to rebut the same.

23. PERSONS DEEMED TO BE PUBLIC SERVANTS [SECTION 156]

Section 156 deems all persons discharging functions under the Act as public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860. This means that such persons shall qualify as public servants for the purpose of Indian Penal Code, wherever applicable.

24. PROTECTION OF ACTION TAKEN UNDER THIS ACT [SECTION 157]

Section 157 grants immunity to the following persons against legal proceedings for anything done or intended to be done in good faith:

- President of the Appellate Tribunal
- State President of the Appellate Tribunal
- Members of the Appellate Tribunal
- Officers or other employees of the Appellate Tribunal
- Any other person authorised by the Appellate Tribunal
- Any officer appointed or authorised under the Act

It provides immunity from personal liability for decisions, acts, or omissions that are made within the scope of their official duties, and not made in a wanton or reckless manner.

25. BAR ON JURISDICTION OF CIVIL COURTS [SECTION 162]

Taxes are a civil liability. The basic rule is that every dispute which is civil in nature can be tried by the Civil Court. However, since tax laws generally provide a specific machinery for assessment, appeals and recovery etc, in terms of a special legislation, the jurisdiction of civil courts is barred in matters relating to tax laws.

Therefore, as per section 162, no civil court shall have jurisdiction to deal with or decide any question arising from or relating to anything done or purported to be done under the Act. However, this bar does not apply in case of appeals to High Court and Supreme Court as provided under sections 117 and 118 respectively.

26. LEVY OF FEE [SECTION 163]

Section 163 provides that a copy of any order or document can be provided to any person on an application made by him for that purpose after paying a prescribed fee.

27. SERVICE OF NOTICE IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES [SECTION 169]

Any notice, decision, order, summons, or any other communication under the Act and the related rules are to be served on the assessee in accordance with the provisions of section 169.

Modes of service [Section 169(1)]

Sub-section (1) of section 169 provides that a notice, decision, order, summons, or any other communication can be served by any one of the following methods:

- (a) Giving/tendering directly: By giving or tendering it directly or by a messenger including a courier to the addressee or the taxable person or to his manager or authorised representative or an advocate or a tax practitioner holding authority to appear in the proceedings on behalf of the taxable person or to a person regularly employed by him in connection with the business, or to any adult member of family residing with the taxable person; or

- (f) Affixing at place of business etc: If none of the modes aforesaid is practicable, by affixing it in some conspicuous place at his last known place of business or residence and if such mode is not practicable for any reason, then by affixing a copy thereof on the notice board of the office of the concerned officer or authority who or which passed such decision or order or issued such summons or notice.

Deemed date of serving [Section 169(2)]

Every decision/order/summons/notice/communication shall be deemed to have been served on the date on which it is tendered or published or a copy thereof is affixed in the manner provided in sub-section (1).

Deemed date of receipt [Section 169(3)]

When a decision, order, summons, notice or any communication is sent by registered post or speed post, it shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee at the expiry of the period normally taken by such post in transit unless the contrary is proved.

28. ANTI-PROFITEERING MEASURE [SECTION 171]

The burden of indirect taxation ultimately falls on the consumers. It is expected that the GST regime will result in an increased flow of input tax credit. In such a scenario, the concern that benefit of such increased input tax credit may not be passed on by certain entities to the consumers is not unreasonable.

Section 171 makes it mandatory that any reduction in rate of tax on any supply of goods or services or the benefit of input tax credit shall be passed on to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in prices.

Anti-profiteering Authority

The Central Government may, on recommendations of the Council, by notification, constitute an Authority*, or empower an existing Authority constituted under any law for the time being in force, to examine whether input tax credits availed by any registered person or the reduction in the tax rate have actually resulted in a commensurate reduction in the price of the goods or services or both supplied by him:

*"Authority" includes the "Appellate Tribunal". Consequently, the Principal Bench of the Appellate Tribunal, constituted under section 109(3) has been empowered⁵ to examine whether ITC availed by any registered person or the reduction in the tax rate have actually resulted in a commensurate reduction in the price of the goods and/or services supplied by that registered person.

Further, a sunset clause had been introduced in section 171 to empower the Government to notify the date from which the said Authority shall not accept any request for examination as to whether ITC availed by any registered person or the reduction in the tax rate have actually resulted in a commensurate reduction in the price of the goods and/or services supplied by him⁶.

The term "request for examination" mean the written application filed by an applicant requesting for examination as to whether input tax credits availed by any registered person or the reduction in the tax rate have actually resulted in a commensurate reduction in the price of the goods and/or services supplied by him.

Chapter XV: Anti-profiteering of CGST Rules, 2017 prescribe the provisions relating to functions of the authority, orders of the authority etc. The same are discussed hereunder.

⁵ Vide Notification No. 18 /2024 CT dated 30.09.2024

⁶ In this regard, Notification No. 19/2024 CT dated 30.09.2024 had notified the sunset date as 01.04.2025.

Functions of the Authority

The authority shall discharge the following functions, namely:-

- (i) to determine whether the reduction in tax rate or the benefit of input tax credit has been passed on by the seller to the buyer (hereinafter collectively referred to as 'benefit') by reducing the prices
- (ii) to identify the taxpayer who has not passed on the benefit
- (iii) to order
 - (a) reduction in prices
 - (b) return to the recipient, an amount equivalent to the amount not passed on by way of commensurate reduction in prices along with interest @ 18% from the date of collection of the higher amount till the date of the return of such amount or recovery of the amount not returned, as the case may be, in case the eligible person does not claim return of the amount or is not identifiable, and depositing the same in the Consumer Welfare Fund;
 - (c) imposition of penalty
 - (d) cancellation of registration
- (iv) to furnish a performance report to the GST Council by the 10th day of the month succeeding each quarter.

Process followed by the Authority

Application to the Authority: All applications from interested parties on issues of local nature or those forwarded by Standing Committee shall first be examined by the State Level Screening Committee. On being satisfied that the supplier has not passed on the benefit, the Screening Committee within 2 months from the date of receipt of a written application (further extendable up to 1 month for reasons to be recorded in writing as may be allowed by the Authority) will forward the application with its recommendations to the Standing Committee on Anti-profiteering.

If the Standing Committee is satisfied that there is a prima facie evidence to show that the supplier has not passed on the benefit, it shall refer the matter to the Director General of Anti-Profiteering (DGAP) for a detailed investigation within 2 months from the date of receipt of a written application (further extendable up to 1 month for reasons to be recorded in writing as may be allowed by the Authority).

Investigation: The DGAP shall conduct investigation and collect evidence necessary to determine undue profiteering and before initiation of the investigation, issue a notice to the interested parties (and to such other persons as deemed fit for a fair enquiry into the matter).

The evidence or information presented to the DGAP by one interested party can be made available to the other interested parties, participating in the proceedings. The evidence provided will be kept confidential and the provisions of section 11 of the Right to Information Act, 2005, shall apply mutatis mutandis to the disclosure of any information which is provided on a confidential basis.

The DGAP can seek opinion of any other agency or statutory authorities in the discharge of his duties. The Authority, DGAP, or an officer authorised by him will have the power to summon any person either to give evidence or to produce a document or any other thing. He will also have same powers as that of a civil court and every such inquiry will be deemed to be a judicial proceeding.

The DGAP will complete the investigation within a period of 6 months or within such extended period not exceeding a further period of 3 months for reasons to be recorded in writing as allowed by the Authority. Upon completion of the investigation, the DGAP will furnish to the Authority, a report of its findings along with the relevant records.

Order of the Authority

Where the Authority determines that a registered person has not passed on the benefit, the Authority may order-

- (a) reduction in prices;
- (b) return to the recipient, an amount equivalent to the amount not passed on by way of commensurate reduction in prices along with interest @ 18% from the date of collection of the higher amount till the date of the return of such amount or recovery of the amount including interest not returned, as the case may be
- (c) the deposit of an amount equivalent to 50% of the amount determined under the above clause along with interest @ 18% from the date of collection of the higher amount till the date of deposit of such amount in the Consumer Welfare Fund of Centre and the remaining 50% of the amount in the Consumer Welfare Fund of the concerned State, where the eligible person does not claim return of the amount or is not identifiable

*State or Union Territory in respect of which the authority passes an order

- (d) imposition of penalty as specified under the Act; and
- (e) cancellation of registration under the Act.

If the report of the DGAP recommends that there is contravention or even non-contravention of the provisions of section 171 or these rules, but the Authority is of the opinion that further investigation or inquiry is called for in the matter, it may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, refer the matter to the DGAP to cause further investigation or inquiry in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these rules.

Where upon receipt of the report of the DGAP, the Authority has reasons to believe that there has been contravention of the provisions of section 171 in respect of goods and/or services other than those covered in the said report, it may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, within a period of six months, direct the DGAP to cause investigation or inquiry with regard to such other goods and/or services.

Such investigation or enquiry shall be deemed to be a new investigation or enquiry and all the provisions of rule 129 shall mutatis mutandis apply to such investigation or enquiry.

The following are noteworthy in this regard:

- ❑ Any order passed by the Authority shall be immediately complied with by the registered person failing which action shall be initiated to recover the amount.
- ❑ The Authority will pass order within 6 months from the date of the receipt of the report from the DGAP.
- ❑ An opportunity of being heard will be given, if the interested parties request for it in writing.
- ❑ Authority can now seek a clarification from DGAP on the Investigation report submitted by it during the process of determining as to whether the benefit has been passed on to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in prices.

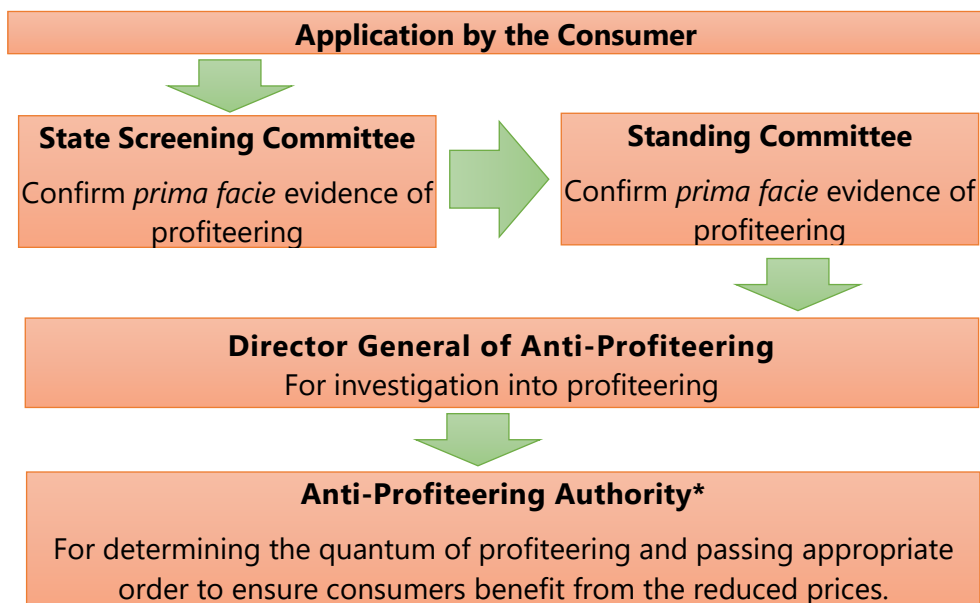

- ❑ Period of interest will be calculated from the date of collection of higher amount till the date of return of such amount.
- ❑ If the eligible person (i.e. the buyer) does not claim the return of the amount or the person is unidentifiable then the amount must be deposited to the Consumer Welfare Fund along with applicable interest.

Penalty for profiteerings

A registered person who is found to have profited is liable to pay a penalty of 10% of such profited amount if the profited amount is not deposited within 30 days of the date of passing of the order by the Authority.

Here, "profited" means the amount determined on account of not passing the benefit to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in the price of the goods or services or both.

Note: For the purposes of this section, the expression "Authority" includes the "Appellate Tribunal".

 Authority includes the Appellate Tribunal.

29. APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS OF CENTRAL GOODS AND SERVICES TAX ACT [SECTION 20 OF THE IGST ACT]

The following provisions of CGST Act apply to IGST Act also-

- (i) scope of supply;
- (ii) composite supply and mixed supply;

Where the penalty is leviable under the CGST Act and the SGST/UTGST Act, the penalty leviable under the IGST Act shall be the sum total of the said penalties.

The words and expressions used and not defined in the IGST Act but defined in the CGST Act shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the said Act. Similarly, the words and expressions used and not defined in the CGST Act but defined in the IGST Act shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the said Act.

30. APPORTIONMENT OF TAX AND SETTLEMENT OF FUNDS [CHAPTER VIII OF THE IGST ACT]

Since central tax (CGST) and state tax (SGST) are separate taxes levied concurrently on a transaction, the same are identifiable and can be transferred to the CGST account and SGST account of the concerned State Governments respectively. However, this is not possible in case of integrated tax (IGST). Therefore, it becomes necessary to apportion IGST into components that can be transferred to CGST account and SGST account of the State Governments concerned.

Apportionment of tax and settlement of funds [Section 17 of the IGST Act]

Section 17 of the IGST Act prescribes the provisions for such apportionment of IGST and settlement of funds between the Central Government and the State Governments.

A. Apportionment of IGST paid on supplies where ITC cannot be availed [Section 17(1)]

Sub-section (1) of section 17 lays down that in respect of the IGST paid on the following supplies of goods and/or services, the IGST shall be apportioned:

- (a) inter-State supply to an unregistered person or to a registered person paying tax under composition scheme;
- (b) inter-State supply where the registered person is not eligible for input tax credit;
- (c) inter-State supply made in a financial year to a registered person, where he does not avail of the input tax credit within the specified period and thus the tax remains in the integrated tax account after expiry of the due date for furnishing of annual return for such year in which the supply was made;
- (d) import by an unregistered person or by a registered person paying tax under composition scheme;
- (e) import where the registered person is not eligible for input tax credit;
- (f) import made in a financial year by a registered person, where he does not avail of the said credit within the specified period and thus the tax remains in the integrated tax account after expiry of the due date for furnishing of annual return for such year in which the supply was received.

Methodology of apportionment [Section 17(2)]

The IGST paid on the supplies mentioned above shall be apportioned as under:

- I. The amount of tax calculated at the rate equivalent to the CGST on similar intra-State supply shall be apportioned to the Central Government.
- II. The balance amount of IGST remaining in the integrated tax account shall be apportioned to the State where such supply takes place and to the Central Government if such supply takes place in a Union territory.

- III. If the place of such supply made by any taxable person cannot be determined separately, the balance amount shall be apportioned to each of the States/Central Government (in relation to Union territories) in proportion to the total supplies made by such taxable person to each of such States/Union territories in a financial year.
- IV. If the taxable person making such supplies is not identifiable, the said balance amount shall be apportioned to all States and the Central Government in proportion to the amount collected as SGST/UTGST by the respective State/ the Central Government during the immediately preceding financial year.

Apportionment of interest, penalty and compounding amount realised in connection with the IGST [Section 17(3)]

The interest, penalty and compounding amount realised in connection with the IGST shall also be apportioned in the similar manner.

Transfer of apportioned tax to the accounts of Central/State Governments [Section 17(4)]

The Central Government shall transfer the amount apportioned to it to the CGST account or UTGST account, as the case may be, and the amount apportioned to the State Government(s) to the SGST account of the respective States.

B. Apportionment of IGST in respect of B2B supplies wherein ITC is taken by the recipients [Section 17(2A)]

Amount of IGST in respect of B2B supplies wherein ITC is taken by the recipients [i.e. IGST not apportioned above] may, for the time being, on the recommendations of the GST Council, be apportioned at the rate of 50% to the Central Government and 50% to the State Governments/Union territories on ad hoc basis. Such amount shall be adjusted against the amount apportioned under sub-sections (2) and (3).

IGST apportioned to a State/Central Government on account of a Union territory, if subsequently found to be refundable to any person and refunded to such person, shall be reduced from the amount to be apportioned under this section, to such State/ Central Government on account of such Union territory.

31. ADMINISTRATION UNDER GST

The provisions regarding administrative set up under CGST and IGST laws, are contained in Chapter II – Administration [Sections 3 to 6] of the CGST Act, 2017 and Chapter II - Administration [Sections 3 and 4] of the IGST Act, 2017 respectively. State GST laws also prescribe identical provisions in relation to administration. These provisions have been discussed below:

The Board may, in addition to the officers as may be notified by the Government under section 3 above, appoint such persons as it may think fit to be the officers under CGST Act [Section 4(1)].

Without prejudice to the provisions of section 4(1), the Board may, by order, authorise any officer referred to in clauses (a) to (h) of section 3 to appoint officers of central tax below the rank of Assistant Commissioner of central tax for the administration of CGST Act [Section 4(2)].

C. Powers of officers under CGST Act [Section 5 of the CGST Act]

Subject to such conditions and limitations as the Board may impose, an officer of central tax may exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred or imposed on him under CGST Act [Section 5(1)].

An officer of central tax may exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred or imposed under CGST Act on any other officer of central tax who is subordinate to him [Section 5(2)].

The Commissioner may, subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in this behalf by him, delegate his powers to any other officer who is subordinate to him [Section 5(3)].

Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, an Appellate Authority shall not exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred or imposed on any other officer of central tax [Section 5(4)].

- (b) where a proper officer under the SGST Act or the UTGST Act has initiated any proceedings on a subject matter, no proceedings shall be initiated by the proper officer under CGST Act on the same subject matter [Section 6(2)].

Any proceedings for rectification, appeal and revision, wherever applicable, of any order passed by an officer appointed under CGST Act shall not lie before an officer appointed under the SGST Act or the UTGST Act [Section 6(3)].

E. Appointment of officers under IGST Act [Section 3 of the IGST Act]

The Board may appoint such central tax officers as it thinks fit for exercising the powers under IGST Act.

F. Authorisation of officers of State tax or Union territory tax as proper officer in certain circumstances [Section 4 of the IGST Act]

Without prejudice to the provisions of IGST Act, the officers appointed under the SGST Act or the UTGST Act are authorised to be the proper officers for the purposes of IGST Act, subject to such exceptions and conditions as the Government shall, on the recommendations of the Council, by notification, specify.

32. SPECIAL PROCEDURE FOR CORPORATE DEBTORS UNDERGOING THE CORPORATE INSOLVENCY RESOLUTION PROCESS

As per Insolvency Bankruptcy Code (IBC), 2016, once an entity defaults certain threshold amount, Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP) gets triggered and the management of such entity (Corporate Debtor) and its assets vest with an interim resolution professional (IRP) or resolution professional (RP). The IRP/RP continues to run the business and operations of the said entity as a going concern and is responsible for compliance with all the laws till the insolvency proceeding is over and an order is passed by the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT). The definitions of the terms, corporate debtor, CIRP, IRP and RP can be referred from IBC, 2016.

The Government has prescribed special procedure under section 148 of the CGST Act for the corporate debtors who are undergoing CIRP under the provisions of IBC and the management of whose affairs are being undertaken by IRP/RP. Notification No. 11/2020 CT dated 21.03.2020 as amended issued under section 148 read with Circular No. 138/08/2020 GST provides as under:

The corporate debtor who is undergoing CIRP is to be treated as a distinct person of the corporate debtor and shall be liable to take a new registration in each State or Union territory where the corporate debtor was registered earlier, within thirty days of the appointment of the IRP/RP. However, corporate debtors who have not defaulted in furnishing statements (GSTR-1) and returns under GST would not be required to obtain a separate registration with effect from the date of appointment of IRP/RP.

The new registration by IRP/RP shall be required only once, and in case of any change in IRP/RP after initial appointment under IBC, it would be deemed to be change of authorized signatory and it would not be considered as a distinct person on every such change after initial appointment.

The IRP/RP will be liable to furnish returns, make payment of tax and comply with all the provisions of the GST law during CIRP period.

33. MANNER OF DETERMINATION OF COMMENCEMENT AND TERMINATION OF TIME [SECTION 9 OF THE GENERAL CLAUSES ACT, 1897]

Section 9 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 lays down the provision relating to commencement and termination of time. It stipulates that in any Central Act or Regulation made after the commencement of this Act, it shall be sufficient, for the purpose of excluding the first in a series of days or any other period of time, to use the word from, and, for the purpose of including the last in a series of days or any other period of time, to use the word to.

In simple words, while computing time, the rule is to exclude the first day and to include the last day. Courts have held that the word "from" is akin to "after" and that the word "from" if used for the purpose of and in reference to the computation of time, as for example, from a stated date, that stated date is prima facie excluded from computation. Although on some occasions, Courts have taken a view that the question as to whether the stated date should or should not be so excluded, should be decided according to the context in which the word "from" occurs.

It is worthwhile to mention here that the Supreme Court, in case of M/s. Econ Antri Ltd v. M/s. Rom Industries Ltd. & Anr, had also taken a similar view on this point and decided that while computing the period of limitation, the day on which the offence is committed/ date of cause of action has to be excluded.

Another point which needs a mention here is that section 3(35) of the General Clauses Act, 1897 defines the expression "month" to mean a month reckoned according to the British calendar. Further, Allahabad High Court in case of CCus & CEx. v. Ashok Kumar Tiwari 2015 (37) STR 727 (All.) has held that where the legislature has stipulated the period of limitation in terms of months, such a stipulation can only mean a calendar month and not 30 days.

2. When the Commissioner/authorised officer is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest to publish the name of any person and any other particulars relating to any proceedings or prosecution under the CGST Act in respect of such person, it may cause to be published such name and particulars [Section 159(1)].

However, no such rectification shall be made after a period of six months from the date of issue of such decision or order or notice or certificate or any other document. Further, the said period of six months shall not apply in such cases where the rectification is purely in the nature of correction of a clerical or arithmetical error, arising from any accidental slip or omission.

Principles of natural justice should be followed by the authority carrying out such rectification, if it adversely affects any person.

All officers and all other persons employed in the implementation of the Act observe and follow such orders, instructions or directions.

The binding nature of such orders, instructions and directions has been a matter of debate and scrutiny. The general understanding that prevails now is that a circular is binding on the officers, but not on the assessee. However, in case such circular states something contrary to the law, the law shall prevail over the circular.

- 7. The statement is not correct.

The Government has power to extend the time limits provided under the CGST Act. However, such powers are not unbridled powers. Section 168A empowers the Government to extend the time limits only when the actions cannot be completed or complied with due to force majeure. Here, force majeure means war, epidemic, flood, drought, fire, cyclone, earthquake or any other calamity caused by nature affecting the implementations of provisions of the CGST Act. This power can also be exercised retrospectively.
