* Case law :- Carlil Vs. Carbolic Smoke Ball Company

Facts - A medical company advertised that their new miracle drug, a ~~sem~~-smoke ball, would cure people's flu. It laid down that if anyone who used the drug as per printed directions caught influenza will be paid £100.

- Mrs. Carlil used the smoke balls as per director's instruction and caught influenza.
- When sued, Carbolic argued the advertisement was not to be taken as serious, legally binding offer.
- It was merely an invitation to treat, and a gimmick.

Decision :- • The court held that it would appear to a reasonable man that carbolic had made a serious offer.

- It was further held that she was entitled to recover the reward as she has accepted the offer by complying the terms of the offer.

* Who can accept offer?

1) Specific offer — Specific offer can be accepted by only such person to whom offer is made.

2) General offer — General offer can be accepted by any person from the public who have fulfilled the terms of offer.

* Types of offer

1) General offer :-

- General offer means an offer made to the public at large & can accepted by anyone from the general public
- It is not necessary for offeree to be known to the offeror

2) Specific offer :-

- Specific offer means an offer made to definite persons or group or group of persons.
- It can be accepted only by the person to whom offer is made.

3) Cross offer :-

- When two persons make identical offers to each other, in ignorance of each other's offer, it is called a cross offer.
- A cross offer does not lead to an agreement as both are offers and there is no acceptance.

4) Counter offer :-

- When the offeree instead of accepting the offer made to him straightway, imposes conditions which have the effect of modifying or varying the offer, he is said to have made a counter offer.
- Counter offers amounts to rejection of original offer.
- This types of offer permits a person to decline a previous offer & allows further negotiations.

5) Standing Offer / Open / Continuing offer :-

- standing offer, open or continuing offer means an offer is allowed to remain open for acceptance over a period of time is known as a standing offer, open or continuing offer.
