

Fillers Practice Question

Directions: The sentence given in each question carries two blanks which can be filled with the help of the pair of words given in the options. You must read the given sentences carefully and choose the most appropriate option as your answer

1. It is in the _____ of the individual that the issue of impermanence _____ its most poignant shape.
A. Nation, discards
B. Realm, assumes
C. Kingdom, deduces
D. Effort, takes
E. None of these
2. The art piece was made _____ materials like found wooden sculpture, _____ jewellery, waste acrylic sheets, metals scrap brass back, and scratchers.
A. for, antiquated
B. using, scrap
C. by, oxidised
D. with, waste
E. All of the above
3. Corporate _____, like democracy, will always be a work in _____. There is no perfect state, but only an ideal one.
A. Control, advance
B. Initiative, chaos
C. Governance, progress
D. Law, command
E. Functionality, growth
4. The _____ intelligentsia wanted him to give reservations based on economic criteria but he remained _____.
A. Bigoted, liberal
B. Liberal, ambivalent
C. Intellectual, firm
D. Biased, amiable
E. Uncertain, sure
5. _____ jaggery can be a _____ for those often complaining of throat infections or cough.
A. Incorporation, bane
B. Taking, advantage
C. Drinking, cure
D. Absorption, curse

Fillers Practice Question

E. Consuming, boon

Directions: Given below is a sentence in each question in which one blank has been given. Select the option to fill the blank.

6. The measurement of the Earth's atmospheric temperature over the past few decades indicates that global warming is continually increasing and that _____ climate changes may happen sooner than scientists earlier estimated.

- A. Irreversible
- B. reversible
- C. abhorring
- D. attractive
- E. None of the above

7. Discovered in India, fossils of feathered dinosaurs offer the most important evidence yet discovered of the close _____ relationship between dinosaurs and birds.

- A. revolutionary
- B. trivial
- C. evolutionary
- D. Importance
- E. None of the above

8. Rather than ignore a company that seems about to fail, investment analysts should recognize that its reorganization and recent uptick in revenue, combined with its dynamic new leadership, indicate that the firm's prospects must be taken _____ .

- A. diligent
- B. seriously
- C. easily
- D. feebly
- E. None of the above

9. In the 1950s, when Mother Theresa wanted to form an orphanage with only three pounds and God behind her, her adversaries had scoffed at her, but in a span of 15 years, a _____ missionary will made her dream come true.

- A. Scornful
- B. Strict
- C. dejected
- D. resolute
- E. None of the above

10. For hundreds of years, origami was just an art form, but with the _____ amount of technological advancement that has taken place over the last century, origami has become an application that may one day save lives.

Fillers Practice Question

- A. Outstand
- B. astounding
- C. insufficient
- D. Suffice
- E. None of the above

Mentor Kinjal ma'am