

CA FOUNDATION – SEP 2025

REVISION TEST SERIES

With around 2 to 3 weeks left for the exam, this is the perfect time to shift your focus from just studying to practicing and testing what you've learned. Our CA Foundation Revision Test Series is designed to help you do exactly that — with a structure that's both effective and flexible.

You'll be attempting a total of 12 tests, including subject-wise revision tests and full-syllabus mock tests across all four subjects. The best part? The schedule is completely customisable. Based on your current preparation, we'll work with you to plan when to write each test — no fixed timelines. Once you update us on what you've completed, we'll allot test dates and timings individually, tailored to your pace.

This approach ensures you're not just passively studying but actively writing, getting your papers evaluated with feedback, and continuously improving — exactly what's needed in these final weeks.

Let's make every test count! 🙌
