1.5 Marks Answers should align with the Q. 3 marks allotted—be concise or detailed based on weightage

In absence of law, Rules, precedents, Judicial Precedent Court has the power to do

In absence of law, Rules, precedents, Judicial Precedent Supreme Court has the power to do on by their self on the basis of equity, fairness and justice to ensure small satisfaction and law before court also in some case Supreme court can hold down new guidelines and order govt to make rule such as

In Sexual Harassment of women at work place Court make

Vishal Vishka guidelines your knowledge over this topic didn't meet question requirements you have to do more practice and hard work over it

1 Mark Q.4

Bonham's statement — "the common law of England has always been the shield, not the sword, against the arbitrary power of individuals and can only be used to secure the common good."

In some the power should be used to create some everyone right and that enjoyment of life not just to force one standard, but while creating it also long to make clear every individual is the king and enjoying the right, so above for individual class and system

5 Rule of Expressio unius est Exclusio Alterius Write all the relevant provisions as required in the answer and provide the conclusion properly in clear language with proper reasoning to attain more marks

It means that express mention of one of other

In a statute, where things are specifically mentioned in a list, it means all other are excluded from it

This is usually indicated as "includes" or "such as"

This rule is also known as the negative implication rule

1.5 Marks

This a statute granting certain rights to "police, fire, and sanitation employees" would be interpreted to exclude other public employees not enumerated from the legislation. This is based on presumed legislative intent and where for some reason this intent cannot be reasonably inferred the Court is free to draw a different conclusion

The general meaning of "expression of one thing is the exclusion of another" is also known as the negative implication rule. This rule assumes that the legislature intentionally specified one set of criteria as opposed to the other. Therefore, if the issue to be decided addresses an item not specifically named in the statute, it must be assumed the statute does not apply

If Company is not a public company, it is not in line of Companies Act 2013. It is not obliged to comply with provisions of Companies Act 2013.

Attempt the answer in proper format, first discuss the provisions of relevant section, then mention of the facts of the case then conclusion part.

Question 9
1.5 Marks
 X, public interest litigation is similar to direct case law.

The Public Interest Litigation (PIL) of X, an employee of BG Ltd. regarding splitting of registered office is not tenable. By saying saying it will affect BG's income, and loss will be incurred. BG's income and loss will be same as before. A state can not directly interfere with the business of a company. BG's income and loss will be affected, but BG's income and loss is a decision of Board and they must have considered all facts along with the direct relation between the BG's income and loss to change object.

Answer, the public interest litigation can be challenged. So long as interest of none of the employee at the registered office is prejudiced by retrenchment or otherwise, the argument of X is not tenable.
